Rev. James Bowen Officiating

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

*thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The family thanks the many friends and relatives who have offered their love and support.

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.*

Give us this day our daily bread.

*And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.*

*And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.*

*For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

Charles Alexander McKinley

Charles Alexander McKinley, age 93, of Siloam, Georgia, died Wednesday, March 1, 2017, at the Rockdale Healthcare Center in Conyers, GA. A native of Greene County he was born November 5, 1923 in Siloam, GA to the late James Lawson McKinley and Ulmer O'Neal McKinley. He graduated from Greensboro High School, Duke University and received a Masters Degree in German from Colorado College in Colorado Springs. He proudly served his country in the United States Navy during World War II. After the war he was a college professor and taught the German language at Piedmont College, Valdosta State University and the University of Georgia. For many years he studied abroad and traveled extensively. Charles was a very talented musician and played for many of the local churches. Later in life he taught piano to many students in Greene County. He was a member of the Siloam Baptist Church.
