Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I Shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

*thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

How Great Thou Art

*O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder Consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
thy pow'r through-out the universe displayed,*

*When through the woods and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I Look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze;*

*And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;*

*When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
then I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!*

*Then sings my soul, my Savior God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art!*
