Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

He Only Takes The Best

*God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be.
So he put his arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands put to rest.
God broke our hearts
To prove to us,*

He only takes the best.

Geneva Hubbard Taylor

Geneva Hubbard Taylor, age 77, of Waverly Hall, Georgia, formerly of Greensboro Georgia, died on Thursday, September 9, 2021. She was born in Oglethorpe County on August 25, 1944. Geneva was the daughter of the late Lincoln Hubbard and Stella Arnold Hubbard. Geneva was also preceded in death by her son, Charles Mitchell (Mitch) Taylor in July 1981 and her siblings, Juanita New, Grover Hubbard, William Hubbard, James Hubbard and Emory Hubbard and her special friend, Clarence H. Borom. Survivors include brothers, Charlie Hubbard and Herman Hubbard.

In 1962 she graduated from Alexander Stephens High School in Crawfordville, Georgia and attended Gainesville Junior College in Gainesville, Georgia. Geneva worked for the City of Greensboro as a clerk until she began work for the United States Department of Agriculture. Later she was selected by the Georgia State Committee Members to serve as County Executive Director with the USDA's Farm Service Agency. She retired in February 2005 after 21 years of service.

Geneva was a loving mother, whose greatest joy was being with her family and friends. She was nicknamed "Pretty Gal" by her family, for obvious reasons. She was beautiful inside and out. In retirement she traveled to many fun places and thoroughly enjoyed life! She loved to make people laugh. She also found great joy in serving others. Later in life she volunteered with The Georgia Hospital Association, often dressing up as a clown to bring laughter to patients, nursing homes and shut ins. She thrived when she knew she could make someone feel better, even if for just a few moments. Her personality and smile were contagious. Geneva was blessed in the last year of her life to be surrounded by loving caregivers at Manor Lake and also from Bridgeway Hospice. The staff loved her and treated her like she was family. She truly felt loved and for that the family will be forever grateful.

A funeral service will be held on Monday at 11am at McCommons Chapel, 109 W. Broad Street, Greensboro, Georgia. The Rev. Wayne Usry will officiate. The family will receive friends at 10am prior to the service. Serving as pallbearers are Marty Edwards, Casey Hubbard, Keith Hubbard, Kenny Boswell, Adam Boswell, and Logan Pike. Interment will follow in the Greensboro City Cemetery. Geneva requested that any memorials be made to the Greensboro City Cemetery Association, P. O. Box 176, Greensboro Georgia 30642. McCommons Funeral Home, 109 W. Broad St., Greensboro, GA, (706) 453-2626, is in charge of arrangements. Visit us at www.mccommonsfuneralhome.com to sign the online guest register.
