Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Evelyn Elizabeth Wilson Beeland

Evelyn Elizabeth Wilson Beeland of Greensboro, GA passed away on Thursday, November 18, 2021 at Piedmont Athens Regional. Born on May 31, 1941 in Atlanta, GA she was the daughter of the late Eddie Jay Wilson and Sadie Lou Whitaker Wilson. She graduated from Brown High School in Atlanta, GA. She married Bobby Gene Beeland of Greensboro on December 10, 1960 after meeting him on a blind date. However he knew what she looked like from a picture from the Miss Atlanta Pageant where she won Miss Congeniality. While living in Atlanta she did print modeling for Rich's. After moving to Greene County she worked for BankSouth which was then Citizens Union Bank, The Farmers Bank and was the administrative assistant for Gro Industries. Evelyn loved spending time with her family and being out in the community. She also enjoyed cooking and decorating her home for every season and holiday. She was loved by everyone who knew her and was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother. She gave of her time to family and friends and many enjoyed the multiple Bible Studies she taught in her home. She was a member of Mt. Stephens Baptist Church.

Before moving back to Greensboro, she and her husband Bob served in several churches. They worked with the youth at Beehaven Baptist Church in Athens, GA. She was the financial secretary, preschool teacher and assistant director at Wieuca Road Baptist Church, and worked with the youth and served as Minister of Education at Buckhead Baptist Church. They continued to serve after moving to Greensboro at First Baptist Church in Union Point as Minister of Music and Youth, directed the children's choir at the First Presbyterian Church in Union Point and more recently was the Minister of Music and Youth at the White Plains Baptist Church. Evelyn was also the Women's Ministry Director at the First Baptist Church in Greensboro where she directed "Daughters of the King".

In addition to her husband of sixty years, Bob Beeland of Greensboro, GA, she is survived by a daughter, Wendi Dahlin and husband Danny of Jackson, GA; a son, Jay Beeland of Greensboro, GA and granddaughter, Megan Dahlin; other relatives and many friends.

A Celebration of her life will be held Saturday, February 5, 2022 at 2:30 p.m. at Grace Fellowship Church, 1971 South Main Street, Greensboro, GA 30642. McCommons Funeral Home, 109 W. Bobby Gene Beeland

Bobby Gene Beeland of Greensboro, GA passed away on Wednesday, December 1, 2021, at Piedmont Athens Regional at the age of 87. A native of Greene County, Bob was born on October 27, 1934, the son of the late Samuel Alexander Beeland and Edna Patton Beeland. In 1952 Bob graduated from Greene County High School and in 1957 from Georgia Tech receiving a Bachelor of Science in Textile Engineering. Later on in 1983 he received a master's in administration from Georgia College in Milledgeville, GA. He proudly served his country in the United States Army from 1956 to 1958. On December 10, 1960 Bob married the former Evelyn Wilson of Atlanta, GA. His working career began at Gulf Oil and then Chicopee Manufacturing. He also worked for TAPPI (Technical Association of the Pulp and Paper Industry) where he was executive in charge of running conventions and conferences around the United States and Canada. He taught math classes at John Hancock Academy, was Headmaster of Nathanael Greene Academy and for many years he was an Associate Professor for the Small Business Development Center and Senior Business Education Specialist at the University of Georgia. While living in Athens he served at Beechaven Baptist Church as a deacon, youth worker and on the committee that built their sanctuary. In Atlanta he served as Youth Minister at Buckhead Baptist Church, coached basketball, served as a deacon, and was on the committee to build their sanctuary. Once he moved back to Greensboro he continued his service at the First Baptist Church as a deacon, and Sunday School teacher. He was a Lay Preacher and filled in at Crawfordville Baptist Church and Mt. Stephens Baptist Church. Bob also helped his wife Evelyn with all of her ministries in leading the youth, teaching Sunday school and leading the music.

Bob who was affectionately called "B" by his family loved to tell stories about them. Those of every age enjoyed spending time with Evelyn and Bob. He was a member of Mt. Stephens Baptist Church.

Bob was preceded in death by his wife of sixty-one years, Evelyn Beeland on November 18, 2021. He is survived by a daughter, Wendi Dahlin and husband Danny of Jackson, GA; a son, Jay Beeland of Greensboro, GA and granddaughter, Megan Dahlin; other relatives and many friends.

A Celebration of his life will be held Saturday, February 5, 2022 at 2:30 p.m. at Grace Fellowship Church, 1971 South Main Street, Greensboro, GA 30642. McCommons Funeral Home, 109 W.
