

If You Could See Me Now

Our prayers have all been answered, I finally arrived. The healing that had been delayed, Has now been realized.

No one's in a hurry, there's no schedule to keep, We're all enjoying Jesus, just sitting at his feet.

If you could see me now, I'm walking streets of gold; If you could see me now, I'm standing tall and whole.

If you could see me now, you'd know I seen his face; If you could see me now, you'd know the pains erased; You wouldn't want me to ever leave this place. If you could see me now.

My Journey With You

Anthony Lavell Murray, 62, of South Bend departed this life on January 5, 2021. Anthony was born on November 7, 1958 in South Bend, Indiana to the late Rosie Anna Reynolds and Walter Murray Jr.

Anthony attended Riley High School. He was an excellent artist and had a passion for perfection. He loved to organize and everything had to be in its right place. Fishing was one of his favorite hobbies and he liked being out in nature. He loved spending time with family and friends, riding his bike, listening to music, doing jigsaw puzzles, and watching movies. Anthony was a loving son, brother, father, grandfather, and a good friend to many. He was always willing to help anyone in need and he loved the Lord.

Anthony is survived by his daughters: Tekeisha (LeRonn) Adams, Crystal Murray, Ukia Murray, Toni (Justin) Thompson, and Alicia Wilbourn from South Bend; 14 grandchildren; brothers: Steven (Patricia) Reynolds of Mishawaka, Byron Murray of Indianapolis, Eric Gilliam of Georgia and Cornell Murray of South Bend; sisters Gail: Humble of Florida, Stacy (Dwight) Anderson of Georgia, Barbara Price, Sandra Murray, and Warlena Brown from South Bend; special niece, DaKendra Anderson; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins; special buddy, Mercedes Wilbourn; and the love of his life, Lori Landsberg.

Anthony was preceded in death by his parents; beloved brothers: Kenneth Reynolds and Derek Reynolds; cherished grandmother, Annie Harris; and granddaughter, Winter Murray.

Anthony, affectionately known as "Antone" will always be remembered as a well-dressed man and for his sense of humor. A large void is left in our hearts because he is truly missed.

Special thanks to Briarcliff Health and Rehabilitation, especially Amy for the kind and compassionate care they gave Anthony.
