

In Loving Memory

My dear son! I miss you so much. It keeps hurting, I can't stop crying, losing my firstborn son is like losing a piece of my soul. My heart is so heavy right now. Gone too soon from me and all of your family and friends. God called you home. Words can't express how much love I had for you. You will always be my in heart forever. Mom loves you so much. Fly high, and know you are forever loved and missed deeply.

RIH Love you always, Mom

Missing you, Son

There is no day goes past without memories of you in all that I dream in all that I do I wake each new morning with a heavy heart with that sadness and aching now we are apart I know you're with the angels in heaven above I ask them to bless you and send you my love and comfort me and guide me through sorrow and pain help me remember your smiles till we meet again.

RIH Love you always, Dad

Acknowledgement

All over the world there are special people like you, who make life so meaningful and worthwhile, who are always there when needed as in our bereavement hour, who will always be special in our hearts. May God bless and keep you. Many thanks for everything and may God create many more people like you. Special thanks to Baylor Scott and White Medical Center for the assistance with our loved one during our time of bereavement.

Obituary

The Lord is my shephard Psalm 23:1

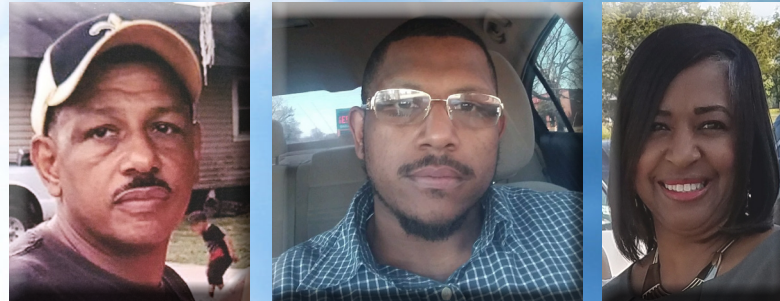

Antonio Jamar Vallien was born on October 8, 1987, in Pineville, Louisiana, to Aline Vallien and Clophia LeBlanc. He departed this life on April 9, 2018, at Baylor Scott and White Medical Center in Sunnyville, Texas. Antonio was baptisted at an early age under the leadership of Reverend Herbert Green.

Antonio attended school at Martin Park and Horseshoe Elementary. He moved to Mesquite, Texas where he attended A.C. New Middle School and Poteet High School. Antonio enjoyed playing T-ball at a early age, and went on to be a great baseball player. Antonio was a loving and caring person and always loved to crack jokes with his grandpa, Dad Dee, his uncles, cousins, and friends. He had many nicknames, Nosh, Antony Nono, Tone, Tonio, Jack and Show.

Antonio was preceded in death by his grandfather Clophia LeBlanc, Sr., and aunt Charlene LeBlanc.

Antonio leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Aline Vallien (Nate Smith); loving father, Clophia LeBlanc III (Raquel Clayton); one brother, Brandon Dion Ardrus; two sisters, Nekedra Le Shay Bedford and Kaiplyn Seymeon LeBlanc; grandparents, Herman and Shirley Vallien; grandmother, Lula Mae LeBlanc; god sister, Daija Vallien; god brother, Darrell Celestine; a very special cousin who was more like a big brother, Myron Cyriaque; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
