*Because we are small, this dying isn't so happy.
We are too small to understand why you left us so soon,
but they explained to us that you went to heaven
and we will see you again one day.
The tears slowly disappeared because we think back on the times we shared together and it's a sure delight.

Psalm 121:1-5

*I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:
he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.*

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer or came to pay a call. Perhaps you sang a cheerful song; if so, we heard it all. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, or maybe furnished a car. Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar. Whatever you did to console our hearts, by word or deed or touch, whatever was the kindly part, we thank you, oh so very much.
We just want to say thank you.*

Obituary

Bobbie Jean Hammons Williams was born April 1, 1936, to the parentage of Floyd Hammons and Estella Yarborough Hammons in Tyler, Texas. She was raised in Winona, Texas. She completed her early childhood education in Tyler Independence School Districts and completed her high school education at Booker T. Washington High School in Dallas, Texas. In 1969, she received her License Vocational Nurse Degree. She practiced nursing until she retired in 2003.

Bobbie met and married Albert Williams, Jr., January 8, 1956. Together they raised five children. They taught their children to respect and love God. “And her children will rise up and call her blessed” (Proverbs 31:28(a). She accepted Christ at an early age, and was an active member at Mount Olive Baptist Church in Winona, Texas.

Bobbie was a charter member at True Fellowship Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas. Later on in life, she became a member of Saint Luke Baptist Church, and was a very active member there. Afterwards, Bobbie became a very loyal member of the Mt. Pisgah Missionary Baptist Church for thirty seven years. Bobbie served on the Nurses Guild, Senior Choir, Mission Department, Food Committee, and was the general president of the Usher Board.

Bobbie’s hobbies included, dancing, singing, cooking and spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Bobbie is preceded in death by her parents, four sisters and one brother, and Baby Girl Hammons. She leaves to cherish her love: children, Albert Williams, Jr. (Kimberly), Donald Ray Williams, Deborah Gail Green, Marilyn Renee’ Young (Danny), and Carlos Edward Williams; grandchildren, Tramiesha Royal (Lawrence), Lamond Young (Elaina), Jamie Young, Shawanda Fulton (Chris), and Katrina Green; eleven great-grandchildren; one brother, Eddie Ray Hammons; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family, and friends.
