

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer or came to pay a call. Perhaps you sang a cheerful song; if so, we heard it all. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, or maybe furnished a car. Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar. Whatever you did to console our hearts, by word or deed or touch, whatever was the kindly part, we thank you, oh so very much. We just want to say thank you.

Obituary

Stella Louise Aldridge passed peacefully from complication of "Cancer" on May 13, 2018. She was born on February 5, 1949, to parentage of Margretha and Hershell Heath in Dangerfield, Texas, in Morris County. Stella confessed Christ at an early age and was a member of Crossover Missionary Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas. Stella received her formal education from James Madison High School in Dallas.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, Hershell and Margretha Heath and Harold Gilmore, Roy Lee Heath, and Essie Mae Grant.

Stella leaves to cherish her memories: one brother; five sisters; grandkids, Candace (Maurico) Dawson, Brandon Woods, Billie (Promise) Dibia, Kristian Simmons, Edward Earl Aldridge, Everett Shelby, and Takemika Debo; great-grandkids, Zacari Dibia, Madison Dawson, Kennedy Dawson, and Uriyah Dibia; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

I Made It Home

*I just wanted to let you all know
That I made it home.*

*The journey wasn't an easy one,
But it didn't take too long.
Everything is so pretty here,
So white, so fresh and new.*

*I wish that you all could close your eye
And that you could see it too.
Please try not to be sad for me.
Try to understand
God is taking care of me.
I'm in the shelter of his hands*
