

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that
God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly

In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,

You did not go alone;

For part of us went with you,

The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,

Your love is still our guide;

And though we cannot see you,

You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,

And nothing seems the same;

But as God calls us one by one,

The chain will link again.

Love always, Your Family

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer or came to pay a call. Perhaps you sang a cheerful song; if so, we heard it all. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, or maybe furnished a car. Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar. Whatever you did to console our hearts, by word or deed or touch, whatever was the kindly part, we thank you, oh so very much. We just want to say thank you.

CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE,
LOVE AND LEGACY OF

Georgia Mae Barrett
"MawMaw"

Georgia Mae (Kelley) Barrett, was born in Palestine, Texas, on April 22, 1921, to the parents of George and Hester Kelley, who preceded her in death. She received her education in Palestine, TX. She received Christ at an early age and became a member of Jerusalem Baptist Church in Palestine, TX. She married Auther D. Barrett in 1939, and five children were born from this union. They later moved to Dallas, TX. In 1950, Georgia Mae Barrett became a faithful member of Greater Emmanuel Baptist Church, under the leadership of Rev. L.B. Moss.

Georgia Mae was preceded in death by her husband, Auther D. Barrett; two sons, George Auther Barrett and Willie C. Barrett; two daughters, Mary Etta Hughey and Hester Mae Rockmore; grandson, Christopher E. Fridia; and great-grandson, Tobias Auther D. Mackey.

Our beloved Georgia Mae Barrett "MawMaw" departed this life on Wednesday June 6, 2018.

Georgia Mae Barrett "MawMaw" leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter, Mildred (Willie) Fridia; goddaughter, Rose (Charles) Hollins; daughter-in-law, Evelyn Barrett; 16 grandchildren; 38 great-grandchildren; 27 great-great-grandchildren; two great-great-great-grandchildren, D'Neko Wilson and Abel Mackey; a very special family that she loved as much as she loved her own family, the Robnett Family; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
