

Poem

*Who may have thought in a million years
That your presence today would not be here.*

*So many questions run though my head
But I dare not question our good Lord.*

I will let you rest.

It just seems so soon, so young and sweet

You will be missed dearly, and

Until again we meet,

We've all gained an angel

Up beyond one sky.

Please watch over us all and

Stop tears that we cry.

Sometimes we may not understand

or want to believe it's true

Forever in our hearts, We love you.

Sister, LeTarica Cox

Reflections of Life

Allegra (known as Tangie) was born July 3, 1980, in Mobile, Alabama. She gained her wings on December 23, 2017. Tangie was a very quiet child growing up who liked following her brother around and enjoyed music. She had a great sense of humor.

She was a graduate of Williamson High School and a loving mother who had a passion for children.

Tangie was preceded in death by her grandparents, Lee (Mable) Cox, Sr., and Elnora Burell.

She is survived by: her father and mother, Lee (Carolyn) Cox; spouse, Luke Brown; three children, Kyandra, Brodrick and Mikeria Nickels; two brothers, Sherwin Nickels and Deszerik (LaQuinta) Hill; one sister, LeTarica Cox; a devoted grandfather, Reuben Nickels; and a host of other relatives and friends.
