

My Dad

*I know this man
Who is dear to my heart
Suddenly one day
It was torn all apart.
This man taught me everything
That I needed to know,
But I never really listened Until he had to go.
He gave me love
And touched my life.
It's all over now;
He no longer has to fight.
He tried to teach me Right from wrong.*

*The day he left
I wasn't that strong.
He is gone now,
It is hard to believe.
This man is my dad
Whom I will never see.
But I will see him again,
This I know.
The day will come When it's time for me to go.
So, I'll hold him dear
And close to my heart
'Cause the day we meet
I know we'll never be torn apart.*

Recessional The Struggle Is Over

Calling Angels

*We waited as if it was an eternity, growing up with him every single day or every other day, wishing and hoping that he would one day get up and joke and play around with everyone, like he always did, but he knew it was his time. He knew the angels were calling for him. A few friendly faces to greet him through the heavenly gates, so, he lifted high and floated high with no pain.
God set him free from his pain.*
