*The Day God
Took You Home*

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why
A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died
In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one could ever fill
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.*

Obituary

Nathan "Nate" Bernard Higgins was born on December 24, 1977, to his mother, Mayme Alicia Higgins, at Bayfront Medical Center in Pettersburg, Florida.

Nathan loved to sing, dance, and play pool. He also was a security guard at The House of Colors. He was the life of the party. If you ever came in contact with Nate, you knew he always have something funny to say. He was a family man; he loved spending time with his family, especially his nieces and nephews.

Nathan was called to be with the Lord on November 5, 2021. He was preceded in death by his mother, Mayme A. Higgins; father/grandfather, Bernard D. Griffin; brothers, Michael R. Griffin, David A. Higgins, and Julian D. Higgins; and grandmother, Mary Ellen Griffin.

Nathan leaves many loved ones behind to cherish his memory: his mother/grandmother, Marcella Griffin; brothers, Michael Higgins and Bernard Lawson; sisters, Ursula and Michelle Higgins and Suncia Bridges; 32 nieces and nephews; special aunts, Beverly Calhoun and Rene'e Fenderson; special friend, Juanita Thomas; and a host of other friends and relatives.
