

Treasured Memories

A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.

You fought for us & yourself too,
I wish with all my might this was untrue.

For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.

Even though times may be hard, and all we feel is pain,
Remember, this too shall pass, even the clouds and the rain.

Acknowledgements

We especially want to thank those who gave of their love and time to bring joy, happiness and peace in Armon Ruth Smith's life. Our entire family extends love, thanks and blessings to all who offered their support to us during our time of need. Celebrating of....

Armon
RUTH SMITH

JUNE 9, 1966 ~ OCTOBER 20, 2021

Life Reflections

Armon Ruth Smith was born on June 9, 1966, in East Chicago, Indiana. She was born to the parents of Roger Lee and Geraldine Miller. She was their first and only child born into the union, alongside 6 other children they shared together. Armon attended Washington Elementary, Joseph L. Block Jr. High and Washington High School. She professed her life to Christ at an early age in East Chicago, Indiana as well as St. Louis, Missouri. Armon went on to marry Grover "Sonny" Smith and they relocated to Las Vegas, Nevada, with her mother and four children. In Las Vegas, Armon worked as a health care provider: taking care and aiding her mother up until her mother's last days. Shortly after, Armon retired and devoted all her time to Christ, her husband, children, and grandchildren.

Armon did many things in life, but what she did best was share her beautiful soul and heart with everyone she encountered. She touched the lives of many people and she had a way of making everyone feel as though they were her favorite person. Armon died peacefully in Las Vegas, Nevada surrounded by her loving husband, children, and grandchildren. She received her wings of glory and transitioned on to join her grandparents James and Ruth Sanders, parents Roger and Geraldine Miller, sister Lynette Brown, and Mother-in-law Shirley Smith.

Armon leaves to cherish her everlasting loving memory to her devoted husband Grover "Sonny" Smith, sisters: Barbara Leland (3 kids), and Jewel Miller-McShane (2 kids), brothers: Robert Buggs (6 kids), Minister Charles Sanders (2 kids), and Dennis Fields, 4 children: Tamesha (Antwone) Bradshaw, Geri D. Smith, Victor L. Royal, and Ronetra (Brieon) Satisfield, grandchildren: Aligha Moses, Samya Beals, Jeremiah Moore, Nevaeh Smith, Korde Smith, Haimerej Bradshaw, Jaimere Bradshaw, Kayden Satisfield, Haimeron Bradshaw, and Queen Haimarra Bradshaw, great-granddaughter Nova Moses, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
