

Remembering

*When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me,*

*I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me, too.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*

Immediately following the service, the family invites everyone to gather in the lower hall for a time of fellowship and shared memories

Faye Woodworth

January 14, 1931 - December 3, 2022

Clara "Faye" Woodworth was born January 14, 1931 at her parents Jim and Gladys Jakins' home south of Dinsmore, SK. The family moved numerous times between SK and BC during the 40's and 50's. The pull of the prairies was strong and Faye found herself back in Saskatchewan working on the Alex and Mary Elliott farm in the Coteau View district near Elrose. During this time, she met Doug Woodworth, and they married on July 14, 1956. They lived on the Woodworth Homestead from 1956 to 1996 at which time they retired into Elrose. Those were busy years on the farm, growing crops, raising livestock and chickens, and growing a huge garden...and raising 3 children, Mark (1957), Diane (1962) and James (1965) along with Faye's niece Beverly who joined them in 1974. Faye is survived by her husband of 66 years, Doug and their three children:

Son Mark (Laurie) Woodworth: granddaughter Hayley (Greg) Park and their children, Collyns, Austin and Brett of Regina; grandson Graham (Dani) Woodworth and their children Bennett and Asher of Saskatoon. Daughter Diane Woodworth (Dave Renwick) of Elva, Manitoba. Son James Woodworth of Elrose and granddaughter Anna Faye Woodworth (Cade Balan) of Vancouver, and Faye's special niece, Beverly Blythe of Elrose. Faye is also survived by her sister, Jean McKenzie of Outlook and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by parents, Jim and Gladys, sister Doris, brothers JC Jakins and Mickey Jakins, and brothers-in-law Norman Skoyen and Norman McKenzie.

Faye passed away in the Elrose Health Centre on December 3, 2022 after a brief illness. She lived a long, full life and will be greatly missed by all that knew her.
