

"Phenomenal Woman"

Pretty women wonder where my secret lies.
I'm not cute or built to suit a fashion model's size
But when I start to tell them, They think I'm telling lies.
I say, It's in the reach of my arms,
The span of my hips, The stride of my step,
The curl of my lips. I'm a woman
Phenomenally. Phenomenal woman,
That's me.
It's the fire in my eyes, And the flash of my teeth,
The swing in my waist, And the joy in my feet.
I'm a woman Phenomenally. Phenomenal woman,
That's me.
The sun of my smile, The ride of my breasts, The grace of my style.
I'm a woman Phenomenally. Phenomenal woman,
That's me.
Now you understand Just why my head's not bowed.
I don't shout or jump about, Or have to talk real loud.
When you see me passing,
It ought to make you proud.
I say, It's in the click of my heels,
The bend of my hair, the palm of my hand,
The need for my care. 'Cause I'm a woman
Phenomenally. Phenomenal woman,
That's her.
Love Eternally, Your Children

"Our Grandma"

You meant so much to all of us
You were special and that's no lie
You brightened up the darkest day
And the cloudiest sky
Your smile alone warmed hearts
Your laugh was like music to hear
We would give absolutely anything
To have you well and standing near
Not a second passes
When you're not on our minds
Your love we will never forget
The hurt will ease in time
Many tears we have seen and cried
They have all poured out like rain
We know that you are happy now
And no longer in any pain
We love u forever
Love Eternally, Your Grands

Profile of Life

“He heals the broken in heart, and binds up their wounds.”
~Psalm 147:3

Mrs. Linda Gail Uqdah transitioned her earthly life on Sunday May 13, 2018 at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Sardis, Georgia on November 22, 1955 to the late Willie Davis and the late Pearl Mae Davis. She was the eldest of two daughters. She was educated in the Chatham County School System. She was a member of the 1973 graduating class of Alfred Ely Beach.

Linda was married to Richard Jackson and from this union they had four children: Marquette, Richard Jr., Brenda and Maranda. She was later married to Khalif S. Uqdah and from this union they had two boys: Mwanza and Khalif.

Linda was a compassionate, dedicated hard working mother. She was a giving person. She would go above and beyond to do anyone a favor. In the past she worked at Inter Marine and Georgia Pacific, at the time of her passing she was employed at Gulfstream Aerospace.

She was preceded in death by the late Khalif Salim Uqdah.

She leaves to cherish her fondest memories six loving children: Marquette Jackson of Jacksonville, Florida, Richard Jackson Jr. (Teonna) of Cleveland, Ohio, Brenda Simmons (Anthony) of Jacksonville, Florida, Maranda Mayrant (Michael) of Jacksonville, Florida, Mwanza Abdulhaqq of Jacksonville, Florida, and Khalif Salim Uqdah IBN Khalif of Savannah, Georgia; one loving sister Betty Jean Grant (Arthur) of Savannah, Georgia; three nephews Steven Grant (Shanika) of Savannah, Georgia, Arthur Grant Jr., of Savannah, Georgia, Michael Grant (Sarita) of Savannah, Georgia; two nieces Katina Dukes of Savannah, Georgia, Leslie Hill (Terrance) of Savannah Georgia; one loving cousin Malenthia Frazier (Leroy) Of Savannah, Georgia; a very special adopted daughter Latisha Jackson of Jacksonville, Florida, twenty-one grandchildren, three great grandchildren; two brother-in-laws: Kevin and Darryl Jackson of Baltimore Maryland; three uncles: Arthur Williams of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Willie C. Gordon and Charles W. Gordon of Sardis, Georgia; three aunts: Ida Lou Gordon of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Catherine Scurry and Irene Nelson of Sardis, Georgia; a host of cousins, friends and colleagues.
