

"If Roses Grow In Heaven"

If Roses grow in Heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me, Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they 're from me.

Tell her I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek,
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day
but now there is an ache
within my heart,
that will never go away.

Love, Your Children

Expressions of Gratitude

The family of the late Dorothy Morris King would like to express their sincere gratitude and appreciation of your expressions of love during the passing of their loved one.
Thank you for your calls, cards and visits but most of all thank you for your prayers.

May God forever bless each of you.

~The Family

Pallbearers
Family & Friends

Flower Attendants
Family & Friends

"Good-Bye For Now.."

Sidney A. Jones and Campbell Funeral Services

"New Ideas With Old Traditional Ways"

124 W. Park Ave.
Savannah, GA 31401

We appreciate your trust in us, and sincerely hope that our service has been deserving of your confidence.
If we have helped to lighten your burden, our aim has been accomplished.

HOME GOING CELEBRATION FOR

Dorothy Morris King

Sunrise
April 24, 1928

Sunset
July 12, 2018

Monday, July 23, 2018

11:00 a.m.

True Born Church of Christ Deliverance Center, Inc.

*1827 Dexter Street
Savannah, GA 31415*

Life Journey

Mrs. Dorothy King died at Memorial Medical Center, surrounded by her family, on July 12, 2018, after a long illness. She was 90 years old.

Mrs. King was born on April 28, 1928 in Sylvania, GA to Mrs. Ophelia Morris and Mr. Wilson Morris. The family moved to Lapageville, GA. when she was an infant. She was educated in the Savannah School System, and she was considered very smart, but she was withdrawn from school in the seventh grade to help care for younger children in the family while the adults were working. Mrs. King married Mr. Herman King in 1953. She was a devoted mother and grandmother. In her early career, she worked as an elevator operator. She worked as a cook at various restaurants in the Savannah area, and she prepared income tax returns to earn extra money. Mrs. King also worked as a cook and retired from Wesley Center Head Start Program. Mrs. King said her employment at the Wesley Center brought her the greatest satisfaction of her work history. The children loved her and came to her for hugs and treats. Mrs. King often recounted meeting former students, in stores and on the street, who had become teens or adults. They stopped her and inquired if she was Mrs. King from the Wesley Center and reminded her that they attended the Head Start Program, and they remembered their pleasant interactions with her.

In 1977 Mrs. King stated she began to feel a calling to serve God. According to Mrs. King, she knelt at her bedside and she asked God to send someone to her. Later that day, Brother Stanley Walthour and Sister Vernita Williams with True Born Church of Christ, Inc. knocked at her door, and they invited her to church services. Mrs. King attended church services, and she soon joined True Born Church of Christ, Inc. Mrs. King received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior, and she served as Church Mother and Church secretary. She was a faithful member for 41 years until her death.

Mrs. King is preceded in death by her husband, Mr. Herman King, Sr., five sons, Robert Morris, Calvin Morris, Hermon King, Jr, Jessie King, Anthony King, and a daughter, Gwendolyn King; her mother, Mrs. Ophelia Morris, two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Macon, Mrs. Mary Greene, and one brother, Mr. Lincoln Morris.

Mrs. King leaves to cherish her memory four of her ten children: Elaine Banks (Edward Banks) Atlanta, GA, Lorraine Hymon (Joseph K Hymon), Gerald King (Carol King), Ronald King (Hattie king), a stepson, Tyrone King, fourteen beloved grandchildren, twenty great-grand children, two great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

"Just The Other Day"

Order of Celebration

Elder Tammy Scott, Presiding

Processional

Selection.....Evangelist Carole King

Prayer.....Pastor Dr Leonard Smalls

Scriptures

Old Testament.....Prophet Melvin Bynes

Psalm 90:2-10

New Testament.....Evangelist Dennis Burford

St. John 14:1-6

Selection.....Indie Recording Artist- Divine Favor

Reflections (3 minutes please)

As Her Deacon.....Deacon Williams

As A Friend.....Sister Vernita Williams

Eldest son.....Minister Gerald King

Youngest son.....Deacon Ronald King

Eldest grandchildEbonie Reid

– Original Poem

Selection.....Evangelist Carole King

Obituary readingRead silently..... Soft music

Eulogy.....Apostle Dr. Richard Walthour

Viewing

Recessional

Final Resting Place

Woodville Cemetery
Savannah, GA