Reflections of Her Life

Born on June 17, 1965 to Mae Lizzie Dorsey and Lee Carter, Mother Lubie found true love in Edward Lee White, with whom she shared a holy matrimony that was nothing short of divine. Educated in Riverdale, Georgia, she graduated from W. A. Fountain High School in Atlanta, Georgia on May 26, 1960. It was here that she developed a deep love for people and an unparalleled talent for cooking. Over the years, she held several jobs, all centered around her passion for serving others.

Mother Lubie touched countless lives throughout her years, and it was at Inman Middle School in Atlanta Public Schools, where she retired, that she made her mark as a paragon of grace, kindness, and selflessness. In her passing, we are left with the immeasurable impact of her love, which will undoubtedly continue to resonate with all those whose lives she touched.

In the passing of Mother Lubie White, our hearts are heavy but filled with gratitude for the immense impact she had on so many lives. She was preceded by her husband, Edward Lee White, her oldest son, Eric White, and her parents Mae Lizzie Dorsey and Lee Carter, Mother Lubie leaves behind a legacy of love and devotion that will continue to inspire generations to come.

On Thursday, June 1, 2023, the Master called Mother Lubie White to her eternal home. She leaves to celebrate her life and mourn her passing one daughter, April White (Corry Thompson); two sons, Joseph White (Pamela Morrison), and Edwin White; one sister, Karen Roney; brothers, Nathan (Diana) Roney, and John Roney; grandchildren, Luther White, Joseph White, and Jahda White; great-grandchildren, London White, Luther White Jr., Kaleah White, Desmond White, Joseph White Jr., Jacari White, and Xyla White; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Let us remember Mother Lubie White with love in our hearts and gratitude for the lasting impact she made on our lives.

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.
