THE Life

OF GEORGE ALFRED BROWN

George Alfred Brown was born to George Godbolt and Paulette D. Brown on April 13th 1989. He departed this earthly life on Saturday, October 24th 2020.

Born in raised in Trenton, NJ, George received his education in the Trenton Public School system.

Known for his infectious smile, and humorous personality, George was loved by everyone who knew him. Whenever in his company you could always expect a fun time or some good conversation.

George was just the type of guy who brought love into anyone life he encountered. He will forever be "Uncle Little Georgie" to his nieces and nephews, which was screamed out whenever he walked through the door, because they just knew a good time was coming.

The first character trait that would be used to describe George is "He was good father". George shined the brightest in the company of his sons, to know him was to know that his biggest and most proudest accomplishment was being a father, not just any father, the best! The love George showed towards his surviving sons Zyion Michael McNeil Brown, Syaire Michael-Elijah and Navir King Brown, was so strong that it became a part of his nature.

George was also well known for the loved he showed and expressed towards his family and friends. He especially bragged about the bond shared between himself and his siblings. He considered his siblings as his universe, he was their galaxy.

George was predeceased and welcomed by his loving grandmothers Bettie Godbolt and Margaret Outten, his grandfather George Anderson, and his big brothers Eligha Perry and Michael Brown.

He leaves to cherish and honor his memories, his brothers George Godbolt Jr. and Joseph Tucker, his sisters, Latonya Towler, Christa, Christine, Margaret, and Shanika Brown, Tomoan, Octtavia, and Naquese Hawkins, Endia, E'Lycia, and George Godbolt, Genise Mckinney, Marne' Mayfield, Domonique Clark, Ecora Sutton, Ahnye Wright, his much loved nephews Shaquir, Ziaire, Shaquan Rayvon Brown, Kenneth Burke, Jajuan Woorley Jr., his nieces Zyasha, Azorah, Mia, and Serenity Brown, Asia Anderson, Kayla Millard, Amyrah Jones, Amaura Roberts, his honored mother Ernika Godbolt, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

THE STAR**

A light went out on Earth for me
The day we said goodbye
And on that day a star was born,
The brightest in the sky
Reaching through the darkness
With its rays of purest white
Lighting up the Heavens
As it once lit up my life
With beams of love to heal
The broken heart you left behind
Always in my memory
Your lovely star will shine.....
