

And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

--Revelation 21:4

JEROME WILLIAMS

JULY 3, 1963 - SEPTEMBER 13, 2021

Jerome was born to Ella Williams and the late Charles Woodson on July 3, 1963, in Newark, NJ. He was the fifth of seven children. He moved to Prospect Street in East Orange in 1973 where he grew up and forged life-long friendships.

Jerome graduated from Clifford J. Scott High School in 1981. He then went on to graduate from Lincoln Technical School where he studied Heating and Refrigeration. In 1995 he began his career at New Jersey Transit as a Mechanic. He worked there for 24 years before retiring in 2019. He was a dedicated, hard worker who never missed a day of work until he became ill in 2018. If he had it his way, he would've worked until the very end.

He was a die hard Pittsburgh Steeler fan, enjoyed music and loved working with his hands.

He was preceded in death by his father Charles Woodson, brothers: Henry Williams and Charles Bryant. He is survived by his mother Ella Williams, siblings: Ervin Bryant, Marguerita Cousar, Velma Williams and Gretchen Williams-Salters. Nieces and nephews: Ebony Williams, Cameron Salters, Ameer Denny, Quawan Bryant, Lanisa Bryant, Melissa Bryant, Jamillah Jackson, Phillip Cook, Kevin Williams and Cranston Bryant. He is also survived by a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins and friends.

Special mention: Larry McCargo (brother-friend), Vincent Hill a.k.a. Rock (cousin), Ricky Bryant (cousin), Dennis "Hassan" Thompson (brother-friend), Ayden Williams-Sanders (great-nephew), Kyiah Tucker (great-niece), Suprena McNeal (sister-friend), Lakirah McNeal (god-daughter).

HE WILL CALL (JOB 14:13-15)

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.
