

God saw you getting tired And a cure was not to be, So he put His arms around you And whispered "Come to me."

With tearful eyes we watched you As you slowly slipped away, And though we loved you dearly We couldn't make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating Your tired hands put to rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

You've left us precious memories Your love will be our guide, You live on through us We were always by your side,

It broke our hearts to lose you But you did not go alone, For part of us went with you On the day God called you home.

CELEBRATION OF Je

Pecola McPhail McLeod was born on March 6, 1951 in Darlington, SC to the late Mr. and Mrs. John Henry and Lizzie Pugh McPhail. Pecola passed peacefully early Friday morning, December 30, 2022 in her home.

At an early age, Pecola (affectionately known as "Gal") joined Flat Creek Baptist Church where she loved to sing, "Up Above My Head." Pecola's strong work ethic and attention to detail led her to excel in her role as Executive Housekeeper at Ramada Inn of Florence, SC, where she retired after over 40 years of quality service. While there, she hired and trained many family members and friends.

Ms. Pecola was well known for her stylish fashion, flawless makeup, and sophisticated way of speaking. She always enjoyed going to the salon to have her hair and nails done or shopping for the latest clothes and jewelry. Gal loved cooking and spending time with her family. Gatherings were frequent as most of her siblings reside in the King Hill subdivision: Willie Mae (Johnny) Jackson, Mary (Robert) Foster, John (Willie Marie) McPhail, Jr., and Annie Ruth "Ruby" Jackson.

Pecola was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, boss and friend. She leaves to cherish her memory, her spouse, Wayne Foster; her four children: Allen "Donald" (Linda) McPhail, Sr., Dr. Charlotte "Cynthia" (Anthony) McDavid, LaQundia Easterling, and Draper (Shaunyetta) Foster. She continues to watch over her six grandchildren: Bridgett (Michael) Randolph, Asia McPhail, Allen "DJ" McPhail, Jr., Quanisha Blakney, Dravion Foster, and Avery McDavid. She was fortunate enough to be in the lives of her six great-grandchildren: Madison, MaKenna, and Massiah Randolph, Ayden Mack, Jamisen Wright, and Khloe' Cooper; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Now that she has her heavenly wings, she is reunited with her loving parents John and Lizzie McPhail, her sister Inez McFarland, her brother Harold "Mac" McPhail, Sr., and her great-granddaughter Paiy'ton Mack.
