

Please Don't Cry

*I may be gone; please don't cry.
Death is not the last goodbye.
Speak to me and I will hear.
I'm never far; I'm always near.
Please don't be sad.
Think back to the fun we had.
Please don't cry, my love.
Think back to the laughs we had.
My love, please don't cry.
See you soon, but this is not goodbye.*

Depression

It's okay not to be okay. Just don't give up.

I Could Not Stay

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys:
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

Obituary

DAVID JAMES BROWN was born on December 19, 1988, to Teresa Faye Brown and the late James Earl King, Jr. He accepted Christ at an early age and attended school in Caldwell Parish. David, nicknamed D.J., was a loving and caring person. He loved the great outdoors and he enjoyed helping neighbors in the community.

David was preceded in death by his father, James Earl King, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his loving and precious memories: loving mother, Teresa Brown of Columbia, LA; beautiful daughter, Paris Crain of Jena, LA; three sisters, Cyrenthia Brown and Danita Brown of Columbia, LA, and Debrenna Brown of Cas Grande, AZ; two brothers, Tadoshi and Kerry Mitchell of Lancaster, CA; and grandparents, Reverend James and Bettie King of Clarks, LA.

He will also be greatly missed by: three nephews, X'Zavien and Legend of Columbia, LA, and Deangelo Chambers of Cas Grande, AZ; and a host of aunts, uncles, relatives and friends.
