

Miss Me, But

Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free!*

*Miss me a little, but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me, but let me go!*

*For this a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan;
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.*

*Love,
Your Daughter, Keisha*

Obituary

“So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.”

Isaiah 41:10

HENRY JOSEPH ANDERSON was born on April 19, 1962, to the late Henry Anderson, Jr., and Johnnie Gibson Anderson in Winnfield, Louisiana.

He departed his life in Angola, Louisiana, on Saturday, May 20, 2023, due to his failed health.

Henry was baptized at an early age under the leadership of the late Reverend John L. Russell, Sr. of Antioch Baptist Church in Monroe, Louisiana.

He persevered throughout his childhood of being homebound for several years before attending the regular school system. Later, he was able to receive his high school diploma from Carroll High School in 1984.

Henry worked for several moving companies here in Monroe and Shreveport, Louisiana, with his parents for several years.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Henry Anderson, Sr., and Jennie Howard; maternal grandparents, Joseph and Janie Gibson; three siblings, Imogene Bosley, Douglas Anderson, Sr., and Johnnie Ruth Anderson; and one nephew, Ernest Alonzo Walker Jr.

Henry leaves to cherish his memory: seven siblings, three sisters, Alveria (Willie), Janet (Mark) both of Monroe, LA, and Glenda Kelly of Baton Rouge, LA, and four brothers, Kyrone Anderson, Sr., of Chicago, IL, Rufus Anderson, Sr., and Richard (Laneta) Anderson, Sr., both of Monroe, LA, and Ivory Lee of Kansas City, MO; one godsister, Ollie Burgess of Dallas, TX; special daughter, LaKeithian “Keisha” (Jermaine) Saulter of New Orleans, LA; two grandchildren, Jermaine and Ja’Myria; one uncle, Alan (Beverly) Howard of Monroe, LA; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Family Tribute

“God looked around His garden

And found an empty place.

He then looked down upon the Earth

And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you

And lifted you to rest.

With the help of his angels

They flew you to your heavenly place.”
