

*There was a young lady who lived on a farm
She had many children to hold in her arms*

*She loved caring for cows and all creatures as well
She planted pretty flowers and loved the way that they smell*

*She saw beauty in nature and it showed through her art
She cooked the kind of meals you couldn't find in a shopping cart*

*In her wisdom she raised 11 good kids until they were grown
They all became great parents and had many kids of there own*

*She loved the lord and brought many to church
Smiled at a kids fish even if it was just a perch*

*There was an old lady who gave everyone so much love
She now gone away to the big farm above*

*She left this world on a bright sunny day
But don't cry for her she's home with her Ray.*

Springtime in glory with my sweetheart.

had an incredible recall of people and events.

On August 28, 1955 Delores was united in marriage to Raymond Mervin Dornbusch at St. John's Lutheran Church in Corliss Township. Their marriage was blessed with eleven children. Delores and Raymond raised their family and operated a dairy farm their entire life in Corliss Township with Raymond's brother, Robert. Raising her family, Mom was a creative cook, baker and always had a great after school snack. She enjoyed the outdoors as she had a green thumb and loved her garden, flowers and hatching poultry. Mom very much-loved people and delighted in their own uniqueness and she commonly defended the undefendable. Delores loved drawing, painting, gardening and treasured every one of her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Delores enjoyed listening to the radio and TV worship. Billy Graham was her all-time favorite. She was a witness of God's love to her family and instilled in her children a strong faith. Raymond passed away on December 19, 2014. On May 4, 2018 Delores passed away peacefully at her daughter, Maryann's home in Vergas, Minnesota, at 87 years of age. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

Preceding Delores in death were her parents; a stillborn son; grandson, Levi Dornbusch; sister, Viola (Kenneth) Hendrickson; brother, Willmar Rapatt; brothers-in-law: Harry (Blanche), Vernon, Roy (Betty), Elmer, Robert, Loren (Carol); sisters-in-law, Doris (Melvin) Ruther, Betty Dornbusch and June Dornbusch.
