

REMEMBERING A LIFE

Elna Tumberg

*God's finger touched her and she slipped away.
From earth's dark shadows to a brighter day;*

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her weary eyes,
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."*

*To a beautiful garden this friend has gone,
To a land of perfect rest;
Though she is gone, she still lives on
In the garden of memory.*

The Lord is My Shepherd:
I shall not want.

He maketh me lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me besides the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me:
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil:
My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The 23rd Psalm
