

The time has come for me to leave this life.

I have fought the good fight.

I have finished the race.

I have kept the faith.

Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day.

Laid To Rest

Grace Lutheran Cemetery, Henning, Minnesota

Charles Jorud was born January 31, 1937 near Battle Lake, MN where he grew up on the family farm and attended school. He was baptized and confirmed at Eagle Lake Lutheran Church.

Charles married Elaine Bjerketvedt on May 5, 1959. In 1960, Charles and Elaine moved to Henning, MN where they made their home and raised their family.

Charles joined the Army in 1955 and served at Fort Benning, Columbus, Georgia. He continued to serve in the Army Reserves until 1965. Charles had several jobs throughout his lifetime including Boeing Airlines in California as well as the Thiel Feed Mill, Trites Associate and Doolittle's Consumer Oil.

Charles served on the Henning Volunteer Fire Department for 20 years. He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church where he was a member of the board for many years.

Charles was an excellent mechanic and loved working on old cars and tractors, a trait he passed on to several of his kids and grandkids. He attended the Dalton and Rollag threshing reunions for many years. He also bowled on the Henning bowling league with his wife. Charles loved his wife, Elaine, and his family and was always very proud of his children and grandchildren. "Grandpa" was always available for advice on how to fix something that needed fixing. Preceded in death by his parents: Andy and Laura Jorud; brothers: Floyd Jorud and Chester Jorud; sister: Joyce Johansson.
