Laid To Rest

St. John's Lutheran Cemetery, Ottertail, Minnesota

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Olga Sophia (Steinhauer) Krekula was born on December 24, 1921 in Parker, South Dakota. Her parents were the late John and Elisa (Pineckeanstein) Steinhauer. Olga graduated with her twin sister, Olinda and her other sister, Johanna with the Class of 1940 from Marion High School in Marion, South Dakota.

Olga was united in marriage to Floyd C. Dorow in South Dakota. They made their home near Oak Point on Rush Lake, and later moved to Otto Township where they continued to farm. Floyd passed away October 2, 1952. In her younger years Olga was employed as a CNA at the Perham Hospital.

In 1954 Olga was united in marriage to Maurice John Krekula. Maurice and Olga made their home in Otto Township. Olga continued her education and became an LPN and was employed at the New York Mills Hospital and then the Elders' Home. Maurice passed away on August 24, 1989. Olga made her home in New York Mills in 2007, and has resided at the Hadley House in Perham since May of 2017.

Olga enjoyed gardening, canning, playing cards, crocheting, hardanger embroidery and knitting. On November 28, 2019 Olga passed away at 97 years of age. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends. Preceding Olga in death were her parents, John and Elisa; husbands, Floyd Dorow and Maurice John Krekula; son, Darwin "Chuck" Dorow; siblings: Paul, Theodore, Sara, Johanna, Bernard, Olinda, Ida and Emil.
