

IN LOVING MEMORY

Betty McManigle

We know life's never measured by how many years we live, but by the kindly things we do and the happiness we give.

If Roses Grow in Heaven

By Dolores M. Garcia

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Betty Jane McManigle was born on May 24, 1948 to Wallace and Lorraine (Zuech) McManigle in Wahpeton, North Dakota. She attended High School in Wadena, Minnesota, graduating with the class of 1966. After graduating high school, Betty worked at various local establishments and in the local community and more recently at the Ottertail Bakery.

Betty enjoyed bingo and casino trips with her sisters, family and friends. She loved to travel and visit new places. Some of her favorite destinations were New York City, Chicago, Las Vegas, Branson, and especially road trips to Montana with her family. Betty treasured her family and spending time with them, attending family events and her grandchildren's events and activities.

Preceding Betty in death are her parents: Wallace and Lorraine McManigle; brother: Larry McManigle; nephew: Jesse McManigle; and Don Christianson.
