Laid to Rest

Inman Cemetery
Henning, Minnesota

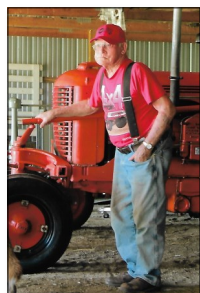

The Lord saw you getting tired, and a cure was not to be,
So He put his arms around you and whispered, "Come with me"
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer and saw you fade away,
Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, a beautiful smile at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove He only takes the best.
It's lonesome here without you we miss you so each day,
Our lives aren't the same since you went away.

When days are sad and lonely, and everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper, "Cheer up and carry on."
Each time we see your picture, you seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping, we'll meet again someday."

You never said 'I'm leaving', you never said goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knew why.
A million times we needed you, a million times we cried,
If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still,
In our hearts you hold a place, that no one could ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you, the day God took you home.

Vergil Leroy Frost was born on May 28, 1932 at home in Lake Elizabeth Township, Kandiyohi County, rural Atwater, Minnesota. His parents were the late Axel and Dorothy (Starrett) Frost. Vergil was baptized on April 9, 1944 at the Henning United Methodist Church and attended country school until the 8th grade. He met his future wife, Geroline Anderson when he was 16 years old.

On June 6, 1953 Vergil was united in marriage with Geroline Adoris Anderson at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Henning, Minnesota. They moved to the Iron Range in search of employment in 1955. Settling down on a farm in rural Gilbert, Minnesota to do some farming and raise 7 children. Vergil was a hardworking and loving husband and father. With the help of his loving family he fixed tractors for use on the farm. He was a part of the Biwabik volunteer fire department and he found employment at Volden Construction, Foley Construction, and the iron ore mines for 37 years where he retired from LTV Steel.

Following Vergil's retirement, he and Geroline made their home in rural Ottertail, Minnesota and began a less busy lifestyle. They enjoyed watching the birds that frequented the many bird feeders throughout their yard and watching the grandchildren run around. The couple enjoyed buying scratch-off lottery tickets together and Vergil always said he gave Geroline the winning tickets.

On June 11, 2005 Geroline passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family at the Henning Health Care Center.

Vergil loved spending time with his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren who were such an important part of his life. He enjoyed farming, bird watching, restoring Case tractors with his grandchildren, and mowing the lawn.

On August 22, 2021 Vergil passed away surrounded by his loving family at his home in rural Ottertail, Minnesota at 89 years of age. He will be dearly missed by his family and friends. Preceding Vergil in death were his parents, Axel and Dorothy Frost; wife, Geroline Frost; daughters-in-law, Sophie Frost and Lea Frost; and son-in-law, Timothy Campbell.
