Life Reflections

John David Babiarz was born in a little town called Cheektowaga in Buffalo, New York to Gabriel Stantley Babiarz and Joan Isabel Kidd. He was preceded in death by his parents, and grandson, X'zavier Ray.

Upon graduating from high school, John moved to Dallas, Texas. He later attended DeVry Institute, Brown Trail School of Preaching, and Covenant Transportation, a truck driving School.

On September 10, 1993, he was united to Alana Babiarz in Holy Matrimony with her three children, who he treated as his own.

John worked for Crane Plumbing, Steak and Egg Restaurant, City of Dallas, and Jack in the Box.

He was baptized at Marsalis Avenue Church of Christ. He later transferred his membership to Garza Avenue Church of Christ where he was on the Usher Board, drove the bus, and served God like "John the Baptizer".

John leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Alana M. Babiarz; three stepsons, Leon Ray, Allen Ray, and Samuel Smith; four brothers, Frank (Karen), Paul, Charles, and Thomas; granddaughter, Cristina James, along with a host of other relatives and friends that loved him dearly.

Expressions of Love

Being married to you meant beginning and ending each day with someone I love. It means knowing that there was someone who understood and was always there for me. I am really grateful for the life we shared and for you my wonderful husband of 27 years. I will miss you honey!

Your Wife, Alana

He was a wonderful father that I will miss and love. You always helped me be good as we talk and laughed together. I cried when you became ill.

Love Your Son, Samuel

Thank the Lord for sending a man to show me how to be responsible, work, and stay with the Lord. I will forever miss and love you daddy.

-Allen Ray

Thank you for being there for my mother, helping her raise us to be better men who serve the Lord.

Love You, Leon Ray
