

Expressions of Love

"MY GIRL"

So many memories fill my heart with endless joy and love. God called you home and gave you wings to fly high like a dove. As my tears fall, I can't help but smile as I cry. For I know you didn't leave me and you will always be close by. No more pain for my Queen; only happy feelings and bliss. A heavenly reunion is taking place that you just couldn't miss. Your sweet voice will be missed abundantly till the end of my time. Your perfect smile will always be a reminder of things so divine. What a blessing you are! So humble while serving Christ. Steadfast and unmovable on his word at any price. My love and pain, I cannot explain, as I yearn to see your face. So until we meet again, I'll just hold on to your love and amazing grace.

Eternity's Love, Suga Booga

Dear Mama, I could never find the words to express my love for you. I feel like the scared little girl on the first day of school all over again. But I can clearly hear your sweet voice telling me, "Come on Renee, you gotta be a big girl and pray." I did it then, and I will continue to do it now and forever. I love you Mama! Kiss Daddy and Billy for me.

Love Always, Renee.

I will miss the talks we shared, you listening to my crazy stories, your laugh, and your big smile. But most of all, I will miss your words of wisdom. I love you to infinity.

-Gwen

To My PP, not a day goes by without me thinking of you. You loved me right down to my soul, you offered kindness, wisdom and love. We have so many memories together that I can never let go. Talking with you was always a special treat growing up. You were an amazing woman and I thank God so much for letting me have the honor of being your niece.

Love, Kaylor (Your Pootie)

Dear Sis, it broke my heart to lose you, but I know you will always be by my side. I will always remember what you taught me and the love that we shared. I'm going to miss you, I already miss you, and I will always love you.

Always and Forever, Sissy Pooh

I love Johnie like a sister! We met more than 37 years ago when I married her only brother. That in itself was a challenge for me, because she was very protective of him. However, I must have passed her test because she was very loving and gracious to me over all those years. She will surely be missed. I am so thankful for the time we had together. "Little by little we let go of loss, but never of love."

Expressions of Love

One never knows just how many friends he or she has until the loss of a loved one. During these trying hours, the presence and prayers of friends have been our sustaining elements. Your prayers have increased our faith. Your words have encouraged our sad hearts. Your presence has given us an arm on which to lean. Your food has helped us maintain our strength. The fragrance of flowers, gifts, cards, visits and calls added a touch of beauty to a setting filled with gloom. Because of you, our burden seemed lighter. We pray that each of you will be showered with God's blessings because of your generosity.

Reflections of Life

Johnie Ruth Pryor was born August 31, 1937 to the union of Ormer and Susie Rogers. She was the second of five siblings.

She was educated in the Mount Vernon Public School System and was a graduate of Denton High School. In 1959 she married the late Billy Bruce Pryor. Their union created two beautiful children: Kawanis Renee Lanier and Billy Marquette Pryor.

The family united in fellowship with New Birth Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas. Johnie had a devoted career in management and home healthcare until she retired in 2005 and married Richard Williams.

She was preceded in death by both of her loving parents, first husband, Billy B. Pryor; son, Billy M. Pryor; and two sisters, Maggie Thomas and Luey Rogers.

Johnie leaves to cherish her memories: her husband, Richard Williams; one daughter, Kawanis Lanier (Anthony); one sister, Wanda Savage (Dan); one brother, Ormer Rogers, Jr. (Helen); one Godsister, Carolyn Clemmons; one Godbrother, Tom Deloney; three grandchildren, LaCedriq (Kay Kay) Beckham, Brandi Maxiell (Jason), and Gabrielle Lanier; nine great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and good friends that loved her dearly.

Psalms 23

The Lord is my Shepard; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness of his name's sale.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; they rod and thy staff comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

... Well Done
THOU GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT
