

FAMILY Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there
Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer, or came to pay a call
Perhaps you sang a cheerful song, if so, we heard it all;
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, or maybe furnished a car;
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar;
Whatever you did to console our hearts, by word or deed or touch;
Whatever was the kind part, we thank you oh so much.

EXPRESSIONS OF Love

TO MY HUSBAND, BEST FRIEND, AND SOUL MATE

We started out sharing a special bond and circumstance for our meeting, we were both sacrificing our livelihood and futures to move back home to help assist with ailing parents. We always agreed that only God could have brought us together, such an unlikely pair. You were a quiet man in terms of conversation, never to be in the spotlight, but loved to spend time with your family and friends. Your love for our family was always unconditional and nothing made you happier than to have family around, the more the merrier. You spent our 32 years together showing me everyday your love and devotion, using every occasion to buy me flowers and special cards as you said to show your love. We traveled and vacationed together and had great times. We shared good and bad times, but whatever came our way we always handled it together. I thank God for bringing you into my life and showing me your special love. I will cherish our memories forever until we meet again.

RIH My Love - Your Loving Wife, Sherry

A LETTER TO BIG DADDY

Big Daddy, I wish I could see you one more time come walking through the door so I can kiss you on your forehead, but I know that is impossible now. I won't be able to hear your voice or see your smile anymore. I love all the memories of you that will always put a smile on my face. I know you can feel my tears and you don't want me to cry, but my heart is so broken because I can't understand why you had to go. I pray that God will give us all the strength needed and somehow get through as we struggle with the heartache that came when we lost you. We love and miss you!

Love, Diedre, Devin, Shelly, and Zenai

My world shifted when I got the call, I couldn't believe we were on this merry go round again. I hope God wasn't calling you home just yet, but I know it wasn't my decision to make. I'll miss you more than words can say, you were always there when I needed you, even when you forced me to watch football, and not root for the Dallas Cowboys, you were always there. I'll miss our Sunday afternoons and catching up on our lives, which store had the best sale, and what sounded good to eat. But I know you can rest easy now, big brother. There's no more pain or suffering, just rejoicing around Heaven with Momma, Darwyne, Rosie, Ruthie and the rest of our family. You have been such a blessing to everyone, and we will miss your quiet smile, your odd sense of humor, and the love we shared. You will be forever in my heart, and my soul.

-Love, Jaci

First things first, we love you and you will be dearly missed. You have been there for all of your nieces and great-niece, not just on one occasion, but on all occasions. You have been the constant man in our lives and have always shown strength, love, caring, and protection to each of us. You left behind a woman whom you adored, Aunt Sherry, who had you spoiled. Now you're with several women you adored, your mama, sister, aunts, and sister-in-law. So you are still being very much spoiled and you deserve it. Your worries are now over, we can take it from here.

Love Your Nieces,
Meka, Shannon, Celya, and Kennedy (Great Niece)
