

"When I Must Leave You"

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears, and hug your sorrow to you through the years, but start out bravely with a gallant smile; and for my sake and for my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer, and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near. Never, never be afraid to die for I am waiting for you in the sky!

Acknowledgements

Because you cared you came to share beautiful flowers and words of prayer. Because you cared enough to do, words of comfort and cards came too. Because you cared, we were not alone, calls, and visits reached our home. Because you cared, we are grateful in deed. You have been a comfort and a friend, therefore we are praying too for God's richest blessing for each of you.

The Life Reflections

Kimberley Sanders was born in Dallas, Texas on August 2, 1965 to the parentage of Vernon and Alice Mae Sanders.

She received her formal education from the Dallas Public School District, graduating from Franklin D. Roosevelt High School. She then furthered her education attending Cedar Valley College and E.K. Vocational Nursing all while working various jobs as a CNA.

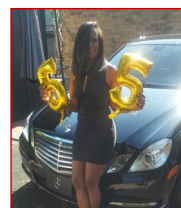

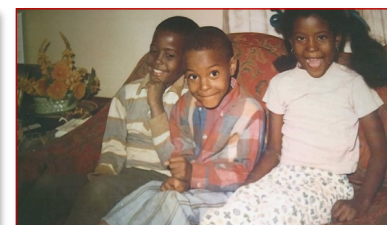

Kimberly loved to laugh and just have fun, enjoying life and family. She was also a big Dallas Cowboys fan.

Kimberly departed this life on March 11, 2021. She leaves to cherish her memories: brothers, Alfred Crawford and Keith Sanders (her twin); sister, Beverly Crawford; nieces, Toni Crawford and Asia Sanders; nephews, Cedric Crawford and Keith Sanders, Jr.; great nieces, Allison Crawford and Makyla Sanders; great nephews, Jabari Sanders, Andrew Sanders, and Sabastain Crawford, along with a host of cousins, other relatives and friends that she loved dearly. She lovingly referred to Frank Hollis as the love of her life, the one that put the Kool-Aid smile on her face.

Kimberly was preceded in death by her mother, Alice Mae Sanders; father, Vernon Sanders; brothers, Tony Crawford and Vernon Sanders, Jr.

Her beautiful smile and witty personality will be missed by all.
