Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*

The Obituary

Deborah Bernice Johnson was born on July 27, 1963, in Columbia, South Carolina, to the late Joseph and Margaret Johnson. On March 25, 2018, she peacefully transitioned from this earthly journey to her heavenly home.

Deborah was member of Bible Way Church of Atlas Road in Columbia, South Carolina.

Deborah graduated from Winnsboro High School in 1982. She later graduated from the University of Phoenix with a Bachelor of Science in Health Care Administration. Deborah worked at Belk's Distribution Center for 16 years.

Deborah was a loving person and she always took care of everyone. She never met a stranger and she was a friend to all.

Deborah was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph and Margaret Johnson; her sisters, a nephew, and niece.

Deborah leaves to cherish her precious memory one son, Druta Hyatt; one daughter, Jozetta Marlena Hyatt; one granddaughter; five grandsons; four sisters, Barbara Milton, of Charlotte, NC, Ernestine Johnson, of Winnsboro, SC, Cynthia (Thomas) Livingston, and Tanzee Johnson, both of Columbia, SC; three brothers, David Johnson, Stanley Johnson both of Columbia, SC, and Reginald Johnson, of Gaston, SC; six aunts; three special friends, Chantay Ashford, Terri Brown, and Nikki Davis; and a host of loving cousins, relatives, and friends.
