

Dear Paw Paw,

"We are beyond grateful to have spent as much time with you as we did. Although it wasn't enough time and we had planned to do so much more with you, we know you are with us in spirit. Your memories are some of the best and we will cherish them forever. There's one last thing that we ask of you and that's to never stop cheering us on and protecting and watching over us. Spread your new set of wings Paw Paw and be as beautiful as you can, until we see you again."

Love Always,

Berlinda, Courtney, Jamia, and Lashawnda

"We are so blessed that God allowed you to be our Father; he couldn't have picked a better man. You taught us that things will work out for the best, to think of others, and how to laugh when times are rough. Just know that you were truly loved and will be missed. We'll miss hearing your voice and seeing your smiling face. Just know that your memories will be in our hearts forever, as you are now our Guardian Angel."

Your children with love,

Cassandra, James, Kaunyetta, and Jerry

"Jimmy James Moten was a man of action. Whatever he set out to do, he did. It was never too big or small. You would have thought he had a car because he was everywhere. If you asked something of him he never said no. He never looked at the color of one's skin; the only thing he thought of was helping people in need."

Love your sisters,

Katy, Betty Jean, Retha, Karen, and Loretta

"Sleep on little brother, sleep on.
We love you with all our hearts."

Love,

Katy and Betty Jean

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
