

WHEN I'M GONE

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile*

*Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun*

*Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day*

*Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay*

*And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best*

THE OBITUARY

Louise McCray West was born on December 1, 1923 in Holly Hill, South Carolina. She departed this life on Tuesday, September 25, 2018. She had one daughter, the late Mary Louise West.

Louise was educated in Holly Hill, South Carolina public schools. She later moved to Washington, D.C. where she worked for many years.

Louise loved the Lord and was baptized in Jesus' name at an early age. Louise attended Robinson Memorial in Columbia, South Carolina where she was a faithful member for several years. She dedicated her life to family and church.

Those left to cherish precious memories are her loving grandsons, Adam (Vichy) Britt, III, Anthony Britt, Nathaniel (Dianna) Britt and Steven (Detra) Britt; ten great-grandchildren; a host of great great-grandchildren; and other loving family whom all will miss her dearly.
