

Love Some One

(Love Some Body Today)
Reach out and touch some one
Smile at some body today
Greet some body today
Hug some body today
Love some one
Be kind to some body today
Love some body – love some one
Understand some body today
Give sympathy to some one today
Be compassionate to some one today
But love some body today
Most of all – love some body
Love some one – today/yesterday/
Tomorrow – love – love – some body

“Collard Greens & Colored Boys”

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done in earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever.
Amen.

Reflections of Life

MR. JOHNNIE ALEXANDER HARMON, 78, was born April 12, 1944 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina to the late John M. Alexander and Iola H. Williams (Allen Williams). He departed this earthly life on Sunday, May 8, 2022 at Pruitt Health Nursing Home in Aiken, South Carolina.

Mr. Harmon was educated in Lexington County, graduating from Twin City High School in 1962. He continued his education at Bronx Community College and Mercy College in New York. He also was a National Street Law Instructor, police cadet founder of minority criminal justice activity and affirmative action officer. He served 25 years as a lieutenant with the New York Department of Corrections. In 1964, Mr. Harmon entered the United States Army and served with the 1st SQDN 3rd ACR in Germany. He accepted Christ at 5th Avenue Baptist Church in New York.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John M. Alexander and Iola H. Williams (Allen Williams); a brother, Jerry Williams and a wife, Betty Harmon.

Those left to cherish his precious memories include: his wife – Barbara Z. Harmon of Maryland; two sons – Cedric Harmon of New York and Gerard Harmon of California; a daughter – Jerri Hernandez of New York; two grandchildren – Jada Hernandez of New York and Gerard J.C. Harmon (G2) of California; two sisters – Shirley A. Williams of Batesburg-Leesville, South Carolina and Harriet Wilson of New York; five brothers – Allen (Brenda) Williams of Irmo, South Carolina, Leroy (Loretta) Williams of Lexington, South Carolina, Jeffrey (Asilee) Williams of Grovetown, Georgia, John Alexander, Jr. and Ronnie Alexander, both of New York; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many friends.
