

In Tribute

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and staff they comfort me.

Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Reflections of Life

“For I am ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.” II Timothy 4:6-7 (KJV)

MS. TESHA MICHELLE CARTER was born October 24, 1971, at Providence Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the daughter of Mary D. Carter and the late Johnny Carter. She departed this life on Wednesday, June 29, 2022, at the Lexington Medical Center, West Columbia, South Carolina.

Tesha was educated in the public schools of Lexington School District 3 and graduated from the Batesburg-Leesville High School, Class of 1990. She continued her educational studies by completing online classes to earn an Associate Degree.

Tesha was baptized at an early age and joined the Saint Mark Missionary Baptist Church in Batesburg-Leesville, South Carolina. Tesha worked faithfully in the church in many ministries including the Musical Choir and the Ravenel Chorus. Tesha loved children and later worked in the Church Nursery. Tesha loved God and believed in the power of prayer. As Tesha faced health challenges and wasn't able to attend church, she never allowed her Faith to waver.

Tesha was a devoted, loving, and caring mother, daughter, sister, and friend.

Tesha was preceded in death by her son, Jabarri Carter; the love of her life, Richard Cannon; and her father, Johnny Carter.
