I'll Be With You Always

*To those I love and those that love me;
When I am gone, release me. Let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy, we had so many years.*

*I gave you my love and you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled alone.*

*So grieve a while for me if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless those memories in your heart.*

*I won't be far away for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
With all my love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and
"Welcome You Home."*

Reflections of Life

MRS. PATSY HARRIS SUBER, 80, was born March 15, 1942 in Lexington, South Carolina to the late Cora Quattlebaum Mitchell. She departed this earthly life on Saturday, January 28, 2023 in Lexington, South Carolina.

Mrs. Suber was first married to the late Lucius Harris, Jr. and to this union, six children were born. Later in life, she married her “soul mate,” the late Johnnie F. Suber.

Mrs. Suber was a member of Mount Olive CME Church in Lexington, South Carolina. She was a faithful member until her health began to decline. The dedicated church members continued to help with her meals and grocery shopping until her death. Mrs. Suber was employed as a domestic worker for a brief period and a full-time homemaker. She loved her family, especially the grandchildren. Likewise, she loved “talking junk” and making you laugh.

Mrs. Suber had two sons to precede her in death, Anthony Harris and Alfonzo Harris.

Those left to celebrate her life and cherish her precious memories include: four sons - Daviel Harris of the home, Lucius Harris, III of Bamberg, South Carolina, Jarome (Sharon) Harris of Charlotte, North Carolina and Tony Suber of Lexington, South Carolina; one daughter - Rosa Harris Brown of Gadsden, South Carolina; two daughters-in-love - Sharon Jackson-Harris and Forgenna Isreal-Harris; nine grandchildren - Shamika (Quantavious) Harris of Greenwood, South Carolina, Jarome Harris, Jr. of Lexington, South Carolina, Arsyndrea Harris of Atlanta, Georgia, Sheterika Harris, Nelson Jackson and Jamal Jackson, all of Charlotte, North Carolina, Rickey Isreal, Tadameka Isreal and Kijana Strother, all of Lexington, South Carolina; fifteen great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many sorrowing friends and church family who will miss her dearly.
