Should You Go First

Should you go first and I remain
To walk the road alone,
I'll live in memories garden dear,
With happy days we've known.
In early spring I'll wait for roses red,
When they fade the last bloom.
In early fall when brown leaves fall,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.

Should you go first and I remain,
To finish this scroll,
No lengthening shadows shall creep in
To make the life seem droll.
We've known so much happiness,
We've had a cup of joy.
And memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy.

Should you go first and I remain,
One thing I'll have you do:
Walk slowly down that path of death,
For soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take,
So I may take the same.
For someday down that lonely road
You'll hear me softly call your name.
