Pall Bearers
Nephews and Friends

Flower Bearers
Nieces and Friends

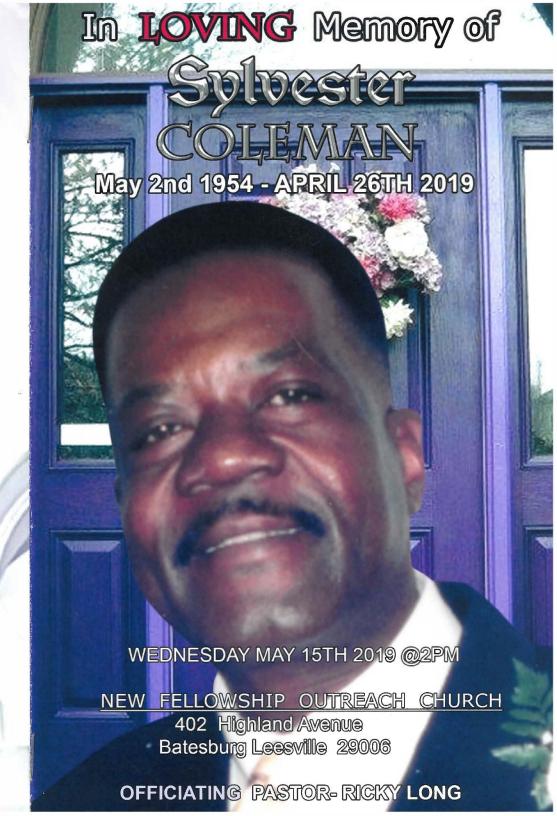

The family of Mr. Sylvester Coleman wishes to extend sincere gratitude for all expressions of kindness and comfort shown durning this period of bereavement.

Arrangements entrusted to

R.O. Levy Home For funeral 415 cedar street Batesburg Leesvilles South Carolina 29070

Custom Program Created and produced by

Alec Grimes alphonza73@yahoo.com

Hymn...... Amazing Grace Scripture reading.....Old TestamentNew Testament

Prayer.....

Solo.....Yaskia Brook

Remarks.....

Solo.....Christopher Wise

Acknowledgements.....

Selection.....

Words of Comfort.....Pastor Ricky Long

Recessional.....

Internment
PMS MEMORIAL GARDENS
415 Cedar Street
Batesburg Leesville
South Carolina 29070

Sylvester Coleman, was born in the county of Lexington, South Carolina on May 2nd 1954. His parents were the Late Gussie and Vestula Coleman. Sylvester was educated at Twin City School.

Ever adventurous, as a young man, Sylvester left South Carolina for the big city of New york; where his late sisters Bennie Mae Bryant, Beatrice Jamon and one of his late brothers Cleaveland Coleman resided.

He was also the brother of the late Walter, Robert and fred Coleman. Dorothy Maddox and Mary Ervine. His last place of employment was at Claridge House in New York City in the position as a doorman for many years. It was at the Claridge House where he met his wife Eileen. They were married on April 3rd 1998. On Friday April 26th; at 6:55 a.m: Sylvester fell asleep in death.

He will be missed by wife Eileen, son Jerome, daughter Shanda and stepson Henry who lives in Barbados.

As well as his grandchildren Demariana, Darius and Lashandra. His sister and her husband, Minnie and Ricky long. Sister-in-Law; Lutrica Coleman. His Niece and her husband Belinda and Charlie Holmes, close friends Kenneth Padgett and James cooke.

His memories will live on with his Sister-In-law Arleen Grimes. His Brothers-In -Law, Jeffrey Grimes, and Mark Rutledge of New York city. Jeffrey Carter, Anthony and Tyrone Lloyd and John Smith; all from Barbados. His many nieces and nephews in Batesburg, New York, Virginia and Barbados.

