OFFICIATING

My GOD in Heaven said to me "your mansion is ready in the sky, come home my precious angel and eat the bread of life."

98 years of faithfulness ended May 22, 2020 when she was called from this earthly scene to Heaven.

Erline Williams was born on April 1, 1922 to the late Belton and Marie Gantt Williams.

Erline worked at James Sease Farms for many years. She loved to work out in the yards and always worked her own garden. She also enjoyed her walks around town and taking the kids to the park and to the store.

Erline leaves to cherish her memories: a son, Richard Williams of Batesburg, SC; a sister, Ozzie Lee Williams of Batesburg, SC; five nephews, Louis Williams (devoted), Henry (Joann) Wigfall Sr., Ronnie Wigfall, Eddie (Carolyn) Wigfall and Anthony (Ella Ree) Wigfall; three nieces, Lillie Mae Lomax, Louisa Burton and Willie Mae Taylor; four great nieces, Alice Jones, Lekeisha, Meagan, and Tiffany Rowe all of Batesburg, SC; great nephew Leroy (Windy) Williams Jr. of Batesburg, SC; eight great great nephews, Hakeem Jones, Desmond Williams, Davonte' Jones (godson), Latrell Williams, JT Rowe, Jamarcus and Damarcus Williams, Zion Johnson; great great niece My'kala Johnson. A devoted friend and beautician Ms. Corine Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.
