Tribute

She Met A Man

One day she met a man; he changed her course in life
She gave her heart to him and vowed to be his wife Ora Lee and Robert knew a love they could feel; to raise their family with values that are real
Our Clark Padgett Mama; A "Cook" in her own right
Took pride and did create her foods with such delight
Generous without fault; her service passed the test
She worked with willing hands to always give her best
Honest in her frankness; determined in her mind
She knew the voice of truth, his light will always find
She enjoyed her freedom, her friends and family
We will miss her presence with so much memory
For she met one more man; He vowed to save her soul
So she went home to Him for His love made her whole
There's a glow on my face that His grace did impart
So when you think of me keep a smile in your heart

Love You, Ora Lee
