

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

*Betty
Gustafson*

Betty Ann Gustafson, age 96, of Warren, MN, passed away on Wednesday, August 3, 2022, in Villa St. Vincent, Crookston, MN.

Betty Ann Sylvia Gustafson was born on January 18, 1926, near Viking, MN, to Arthur C. and Celia A. (Bjorge) Rud. She attended country school at Green Valley School #127, in Marsh Grove Township; graduated from Newfolden High School in 1943; and attended Aakers Business College in Grand Forks, ND.

Betty was united in marriage to Lowell W. Gustafson, October 23, 1948, in Zion Lutheran Church of Viking. Prior to her marriage she was employed at Rex Cafe, Thief River Falls, MN; for an attorney in East Grand Forks, MN; the Credit Bureau in Grand Forks; and Lutheran Brotherhood Life Insurance in Minneapolis, MN. Following her marriage she was employed in Dr. Carlson's office, Marshall County Selective Service System, and Marshall County Social Services, Warren.

Volunteering favorites after retirement were for Marshall Co. Social Services, the ODC Bible Study at Our Savior's, as a Godel Library board member, a Legion Auxiliary Member, and helping with various church activities including teaching Sunday School and Bible School.

Surviving are her two sons, Jeffrey A. and Kent A. Gustafson both of Warren; grandson, Matthew J. (Kristi) Gustafson of St. Paul, MN; great-grandchildren, Kaitlyn, Andrew, and Abigail; step-granddaughters, Christy (Travis) Haugen, Kathy (Nick) Collins of Pueblo West, CO; step-great-grandchildren, Preston and Eric, and Tyrie, Clara, and Lucy; sister-in-law, Ardelle Anderson; and several nieces and nephews.

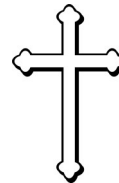

Preceding her in death are her husband, Lowell, who died in 2000; her parents; step-mother, Mildred; infant granddaughter, Angila Gustafson; brothers, Arthur D. (Viola) Rud and Hal Anderson; special aunt, Emma (Arne) Andreason; special uncle, Martin Rud; nephew, Gregory Halverson; niece, Tamie Swanson; and sister-in-law, Bev (Bob) Halverson.
