

MEASURE OF A MAN

- Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
- Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?
- These are the things that measure the worth of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
- Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
- And - How did he play his God-given part?
- Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
- To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
- Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
- But - Had he befriended those really in need?
- Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
- But - How many were sorry when he passed away?
- These are the things that measure the worth of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

LIFESTORY

Kevin Mackins (Banana) was born April 10, 1966, in Trenton, New Jersey to the late Robert Bradley, Jr. (Kuda) and Sharian Mackins. He departed his life to be with the Lord on January 20, 2023, at Capital Health.

Kevin was a long time Trenton resident of Wilbur Section. He graduated from Trenton Central High School in June 1984, attended Mercer County Community College, and earned his degree in Business Management. He loved to watch football, but his favorite team was the Denver Broncos. He enjoyed watching them play with family and friends. Kevin also did some odd and end jobs when he had down time such as cutting grass, detailing cars, and always lending a hand to family and friends.

Kevin loved to laugh and have fun; he kept everyone around him laughing with his humor.

In addition to his parents, Kevin was predeceased by his son Chevin Burgess, his grandparents Carrie B. Taylor, Lillian and Robert Bradley, Sr., and Uncle Keith Bradley.

Kevin's memory will be celebrated and cherished by his two children Antwan Burgess, Sr., and Aneisha Burgess; three grandchildren Cayden Burgess, Antwan Burgess, Jr., and Marlee Burgess; two sisters Tashel Mackins (Prentice) Colvin, and Talaya Bradley; two brothers Tarik Mackins and Brandon Jones; 4 special nieces Shakira Mackins, Mizani Colvin, Ajai Mackins; Tania Mackins and 3 nephew's Ja'Den Colvin, Emory Jones and James Ruffin, Jr., great niece Au'bre McQueen and great nephew Kamari Hill. 3 favorite cousins: Alicia Dodson, Kenneth Dodson and Jabri Bradley; 1 special Aunt Patricia White and a host of family and friends.
