MY LIFE STORY

On January 8th, 1955, Henrietta Dixon was born in Birmingham Alabama as the first-born child to Horace and Marlene Dixon. She was educated in her former years in Birmingham and later moved with the family in 1970 to Trenton New Jersey. She graduated from Trenton Central High School in 1973.

Henrietta was saved and baptized at an early age at St. John Baptist in Birmingham, AL. She then joined Jerusalem Baptist Church in Trenton, NJ where she worked as trustee. She was then a faithful member of Macedonia Baptist Church in Eatonville, FL. (Pastor Barnes). She then joined Tabernacle Baptist Church in Burlington, NJ and was part of that congregation when she re-located back to her home state of New Jersey. She was a part of the Helping Hand, and Nurses unit ministries. Henrietta was also was a volunteer Receptionist at Sisterhood Inc. She loved to travel, watch lifetime movies, and spend time with her family and friends.

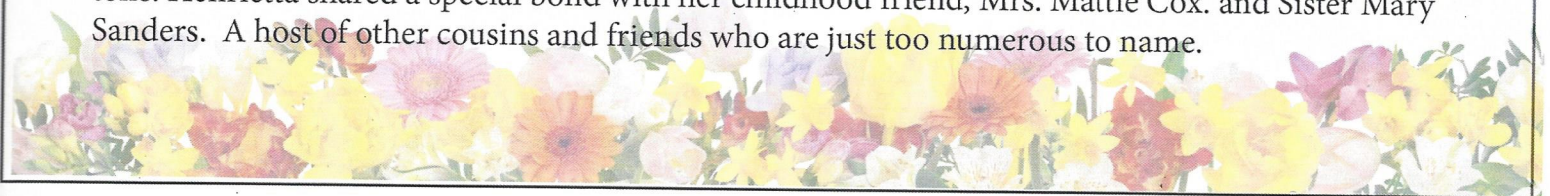

Henrietta attended Seton Hall University with full scholarship and graduated magna summa cum laude in 1977. As a part of her extracurricular activities she pledged the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority (AKA) with her best friends Mattie Cox and Dorothy Clark and was a proud active member with her sorors. She was employed as a public health nurse for the Trenton City Hall and had a desire to continue her education and completed her studies at Seton Hall school of nursing, with her MSN and became a Nurse Practitioner with high honors in 1982. She was Employed at The Center for Drug Free Living in Orlando Florida. She resided for 12 years before relocation back to New Jersey to be near her family. She worked for Buttonwood Hospital as an independent Contractor Nurse Practitioner until the Lord called her home.

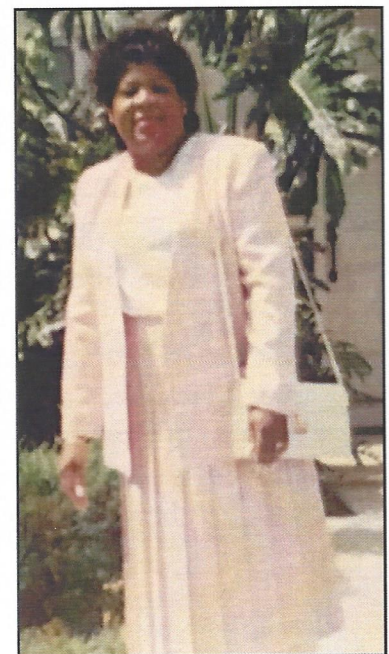

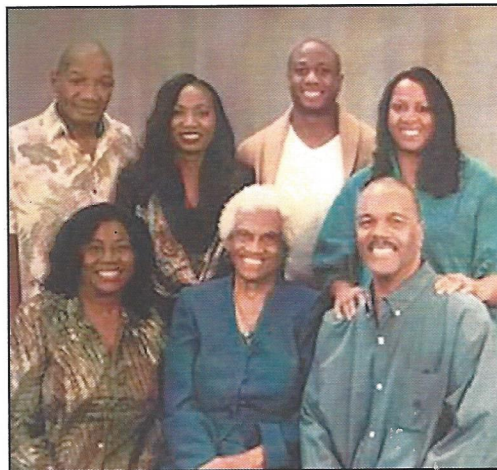

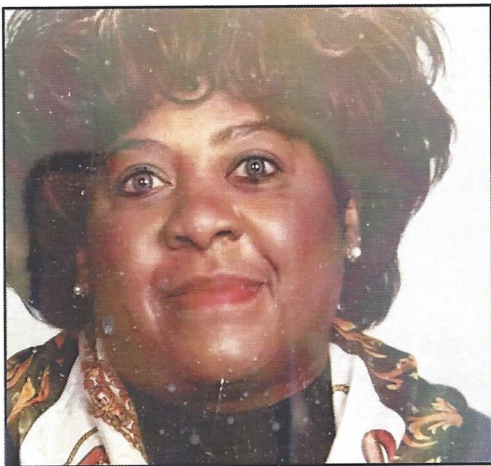

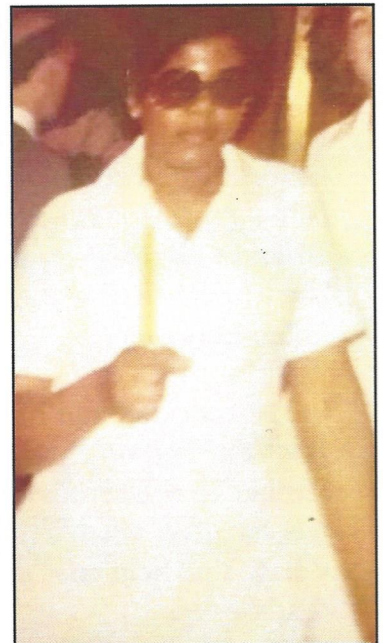

In 1980 she met and married Roger Armstrong now deceased. She then met and married Osai Tutu 1998. She had no children from either marriage. Being the eldest of 5 siblings she got the nickname of Mother Hen. She was an extremely compassionated and caring woman. Henrietta was a strict protective caregiver when left in charge of the home. This love continued as she was an essential part of the Village that help raise and shape us and many generations of the nieces and nephews who she loved so dearly.

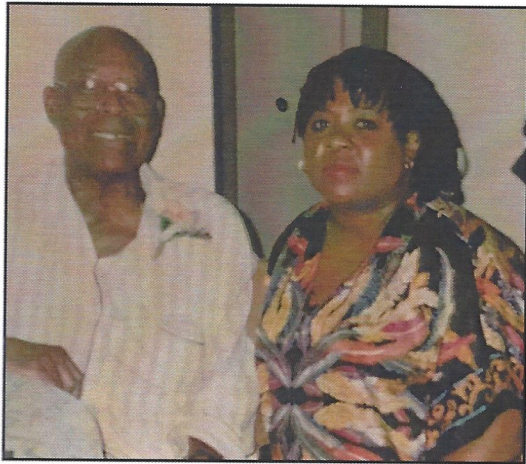

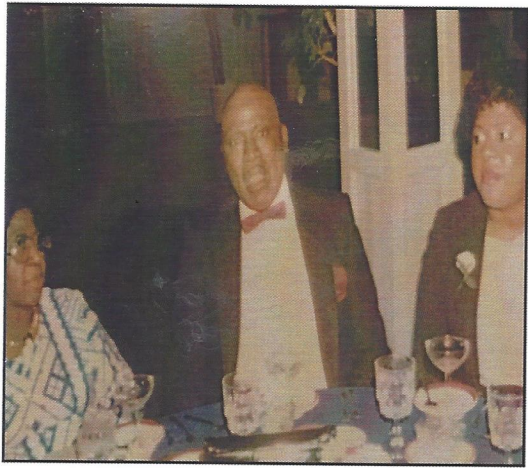

In addition to her Parents, Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and husband Roger Armstrong, Henrietta is pre-deceased by grandparents, Henry and Nora Heard; Saul and Rosa Dixon; and sister-in-love Constance Dixon. She leaves to cherish her loving memory forever, siblings: Horace A. Dixon (Linda), Frederick Dixon, Rosie Dixon, Barbara Greene (William). Aunts: Irene D. Sturdivant, Ernestine Washington, Bertha Conway.

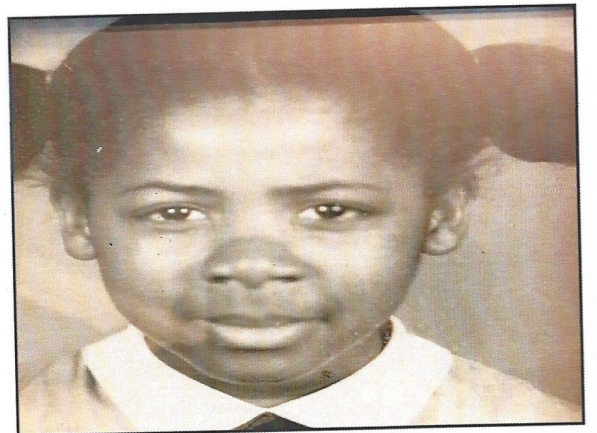

Nieces: Lavonne (Ronnie)Smith, Macy Roberts, Demetria Youngblood, Nachera Dixon, Shameka (Darnell) Wise, Senora (Lethel) Brooks, Fanchon (Matthew) Jones, Godsons/

Nephews: William Greene III, Leland Wise, Fredrick McDonald, Devon Platt, Victor Johenkins, Rasheen Jackson, Casey Film, Robert lee Williams, Jordan Greene, Michael Greene, Elijah Greene, and a host of close cousins including her first cousins the, Heard's, the Sturdivant's and the Washington's. Henrietta shared a special bond with her childhood friend, Mrs. Mattie Cox. and Sister Mary Sanders. A host of other cousins and friends who are just too numerous to name.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

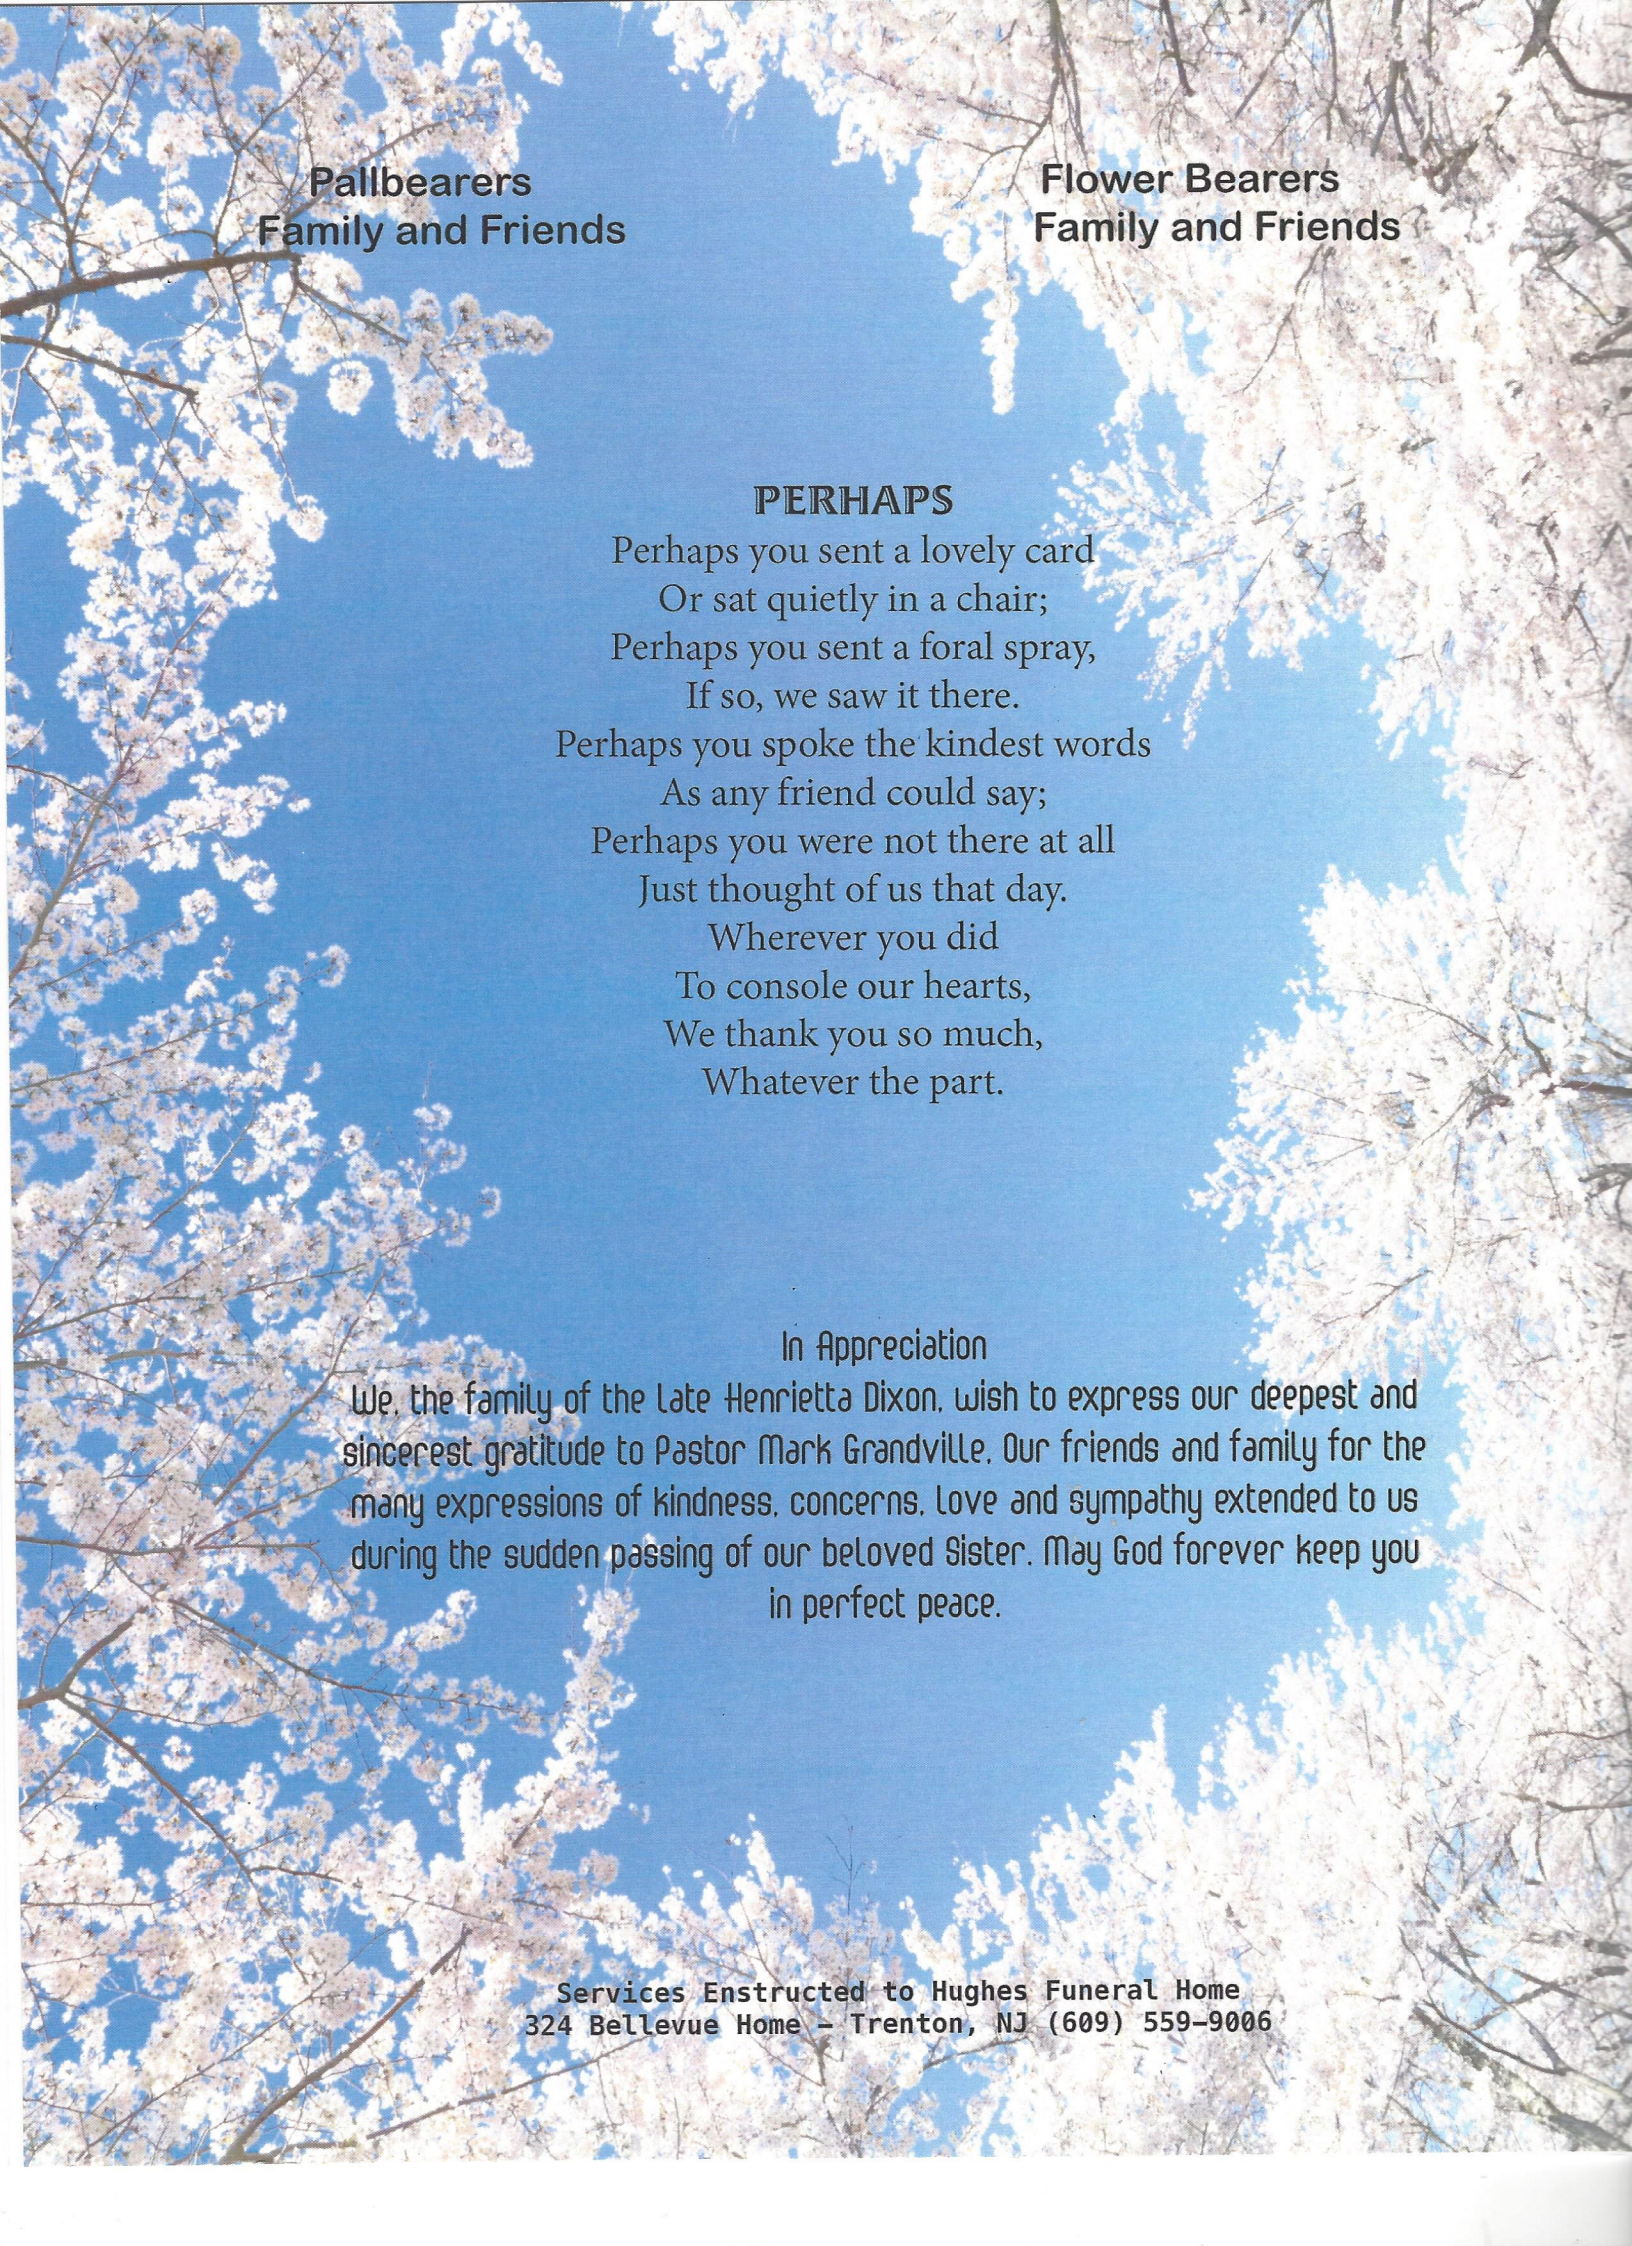

The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love

But When I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne

He said This Is Eternity
And All I promised you
Today for life on earth is done
But Here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And Since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past

So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart

PERHAPS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a foral spray,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day.
Wherever you did
To console our hearts,
We thank you so much,
Whatever the part.

In Appreciation

We, the family of the Late Henrietta Dixon, wish to express our deepest and sincerest gratitude to Pastor Mark Grandville. Our friends and family for the many expressions of kindness, concerns, love and sympathy extended to us during the sudden passing of our beloved Sister. May God forever keep you in perfect peace.
