

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When you come to the end of the road
and the sun has set on me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Warren Griffin wishes to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and loved ones who have provided comfort during this time of bereavement. Each act of kindness has helped to ease our sorrow and remind us of the importance of friends and family. May God continue to bless you, as you have blessed us.

Dear Family and Friends:

Please be advised I have moved. I've changed my address

You all knew that I've been working on my building, sending up my timber, packing up and getting ready to go. God stopped by a couple of years ago and told me to get ready, make my final plans, clean out my old house and get my business in order. I knew my mansion needed some finishing touches and that the Chief Carpenter, Jesus Christ, had to inspect it and give me the final approval.

On Thursday, September 24, 2020, I left Trenton, and arrived at the Gates of Heaven. I have shed my last tear, and filled my last prescription. Your smiles, your tender touches, your loving and caring hearts I will miss. Let my memories fill your days with bliss, and as night replaces the day, look to the sky and see the stars. I will be the North Star watching over you along with Catherine and Ervin; yes, they are here too. We had a Family Reunion and "All Is Well With My Soul". We shouted and rejoiced, as they escorted me to my new residence. What a sight to behold!

You see, it's located on an exclusive estate area behind a beautiful Pearly Gate. It is just over on the other side of a Celestial Shore. Of course, you know the streets are paved with gold and everyday is Sunday, just like you've been told. Trees with twelve manors of fruit grace my garden here, and I can walk and talk with my Master without a worry or a care. I have in been many places as I worked on earth, but my new home is indescribable. There is peace here, joy, happiness and no pain, no doctors, no strife, only sweet serenity. I can dine at my Master's bountiful table and listen to the Heavenly Choir. And best of all, my Heavenly Father is here in all of His Glory. And, yes I have my own white robe and my very own wings. "I Am Free At Last; Thank God Almighty, I Am Free At Last."

I could go on and on about my new home, but, instead, I am going to pray that you get to move here yourself one day...but before I sign off, let me give you my new address:

Warren E. Griffin

With much love spread and many memories shared, our beloved Warren accepted his angel's invitation into the kingdom on Thursday, September 24, 2020 at Capital Health Regional in Trenton, New Jersey. As a result, our hearts are less bright but we know the heavens are filled with extra doses of love, joy, peace and laughter.

Warren E. Griffen was born June 15, 1954 in Trenton, New Jersey to Catherine Hill and Ervin Griffin.

He was educated in the Trenton public school system. He was employed as a carpet layer for McCraig's Carpet.

In his leisure time, Warren loved to cook some delicious dishes. He enjoyed dancing, having fun and he loved to joke. He also had an infectious smile.

He was preceded in death by his mother Catherine Hill; his father Ervin Griffin.

Warren's memory will be cherished and forever remembered by his two sisters Gwendolyn Griffin and Kathy Dennis; a brother Ervin Griffin; three nephews Anthony Griffin, Edron Henry and Karon Griffin; his niece Natasha Alford; two special friends Bill Leonard and Hazel; a host of other relatives and friends.

Warren will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun;
of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
