

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard his call
I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of the day

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Quiana's Life Story

When someone you love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure.

With much love spread and many memories shared, our beloved Quiana accepted her angel's invitation into the kingdom and was called home on Monday, October 19th, 2020 in Trenton, New Jersey. As a result, our hearts are less bright but we know the heavens are filled with extra doses of love, joy, peace and laughter. Quiana Tracy Patterson was born the third and LOUDEST child of Patricia M. Rhoden and Leon Brown. She was born August 19, 1972 and was a true, fierce leo the lion.

She graduated from Ewing High and became a licensed cosmetologist. The love for beauty showed all throughout her life which she also passed on her talents to her daughter's.

She enjoyed singing, dancing and cooking. Quiana was born in the sunshine State of California, where she gets one of her many nicknames "Sunshine".

She resided in New Jersey where she married Charles Patterson in 1994.

She was preceded in death by her husband Charles Patterson; her grandmother Gertha M. Fletcher; her grandfather Bishop J.B. McNeal; a step grandmother Buena McNeal; her cousin Tasha Anderson.

We will miss Quianna's LOUD voice, warm smile, the heavy laughter, friendships she gained, her wisdom in life lessons. She touched our hearts in such a special way she was a kind and generous soul, she touched our lives and hearts. Just remember our lost is heavens gain. "Ki" is just resting in the masters hands.
