Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Celebrating the Beautiful Life of

Sam J. Livingston, III
December 13th, 1978 - November 13, 2020

Services

Hughes Funeral Home
324 Bellevue Ave
Trenton, NJ 08618

The time has come, the sun has set on one of the most beautiful souls God has created. The celebration of Sam J. Livingston III affectionally known as "Little Sam". Sam was a wonderful son, awesome little brother, loving father, and trusted friend. Sam was one family member that adored and held the Livingston family name close to his heart. This loving brother was received into the presence of the Lord in the early morning of Friday, November 13, 2020.

Sam was born to the late Carol Livingston and the late Sanford (Sam) Livingston, on December 13th, 1978 in Trenton, NJ. He grew up and was a lively energy in the modest Poplar St. neighborhood of East Trenton. Sam made many friends as he was promoted through the Trenton Public School district, he attended Woodrow Wilson Elementary School, Junior High School #1, finally graduating from Trenton Central High School in 1997. Sam also studied Theology at American Bible Academy.

Sam enjoyed various arts and musical projects that highlighted his unique talents he polished over the years. He would often use his talents to create symbolic t-shirts for families honoring loved ones, as well as for family reunions, etc. He also worked with his natural musical talents to put many tracks together that to this day can be found on platforms such as Soundcloud to be shared by all.

Though Sam was a man of modest means, he worked hard to share what he had with his children. He spent countless hours conversing with his sons in North Carolina and did his best to spend time with his young girls in Trenton, every chance he could.

Sam was predeceased by his parents Carol Livingston and Sanford Livingston, and a sister Sandra J. Livingston.

Sam J. Livingston III is survived by his wife Jasmine For; three daughters Journee, Joi and Janelle; two sons Sincere and Sam J IV; three brothers Sanford Livingston Jr. of Oakland, CA, Michael Leonard and Kojack Carmichael both of Trenton, NJ; two sisters, Stacie Todd and Consuelo Leonard of Trenton, NJ; and a special friend Lorraine Campbell; Host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. Much love for this wonderful Man known as "Lil Sam".
