

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of the day

If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

OUR HEARTFELT THANKS TO YOU

The family of the late Barbara D. Williams wishes to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and loved ones who have provided comfort during this time of bereavement. Each act of kindness has helped to ease our sorrow and remind us of the importance of family and friends. May God continue to bless you, as you have blessed us.

Barbara's Life Story

Barbara D. Williams was born to Jennie L. Williams on May 16, 1961 and reared in the christian home of Mrs. Cora Lee and Mr. Oscar Williams. Barbara was educated in the Trenton public school district and received her high school diploma. She also attended Job Corp and received a certificate in welding. She went to school at Our Lady of Divine Shepherd, Junior 5 and Trenton High. Barbara retired from Princeton Medical Center as a sterile surgical technician where she also obtained her college degree.

Barbara was called home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, January 11th, 2022 at Preferred Care Nursing and Rehabilitation of Mercer. Barbara was a member of Mt. Zion AME Church. She loved the Lord. Her favorite gospel songs were "Never Would've Made It" by Marvin Sapp and "I Shall Wear the Crown" by Yolanda DeBerry. She also favored "Walking Around Heaven" by Patti LaBelle. She loved her family and you couldn't say anything about them. Barbara loved to cook and bake, especially during the holiday season.

Barbara was preceded in death by her mother Jennie L. Williams; a son Fuji Williams; a brother Oscar "Big O" Williams; a sister/bff Kathy Armstrong; an aunt Aggie Nora; uncles Fred Williams, Glemmer McLeod, Moses and Gary Williams; two nephews Jerel Williams and Corey White. She leaves to cherish warm loving memories to her one and only brother Glemmer Williams; a special sissy Francine White; her nieces Nicole White, Briana Williams and Daisha Williams "Pistol Pack 'N Pete"; nephews Clarence and Marquis Williams; her godson Isaiah Armstrong; a special cousin Karen Dorsey; her special friend Ruttis Taylor; cousins Alice Butler Ravenel, Victoria Butler and Lesia Chisolm all of Wadmalaw, South Carolina; a host of other great nieces, great nephew, cousins and friends.
