

Love

I really don't know
 Where to start...
 The day you left
 It broke my heart
 Not just a crack
 It broke in two
 Filled with love
 Just for you.
 That love's not gone
 Is kept safe inside ..
 But when you left
 part of me died.
 I want to remember
 The bond we share ..
 But the pain in my heart
 Is so hard to bear.
 I miss you so much
 And more, every day ...
 And love you much more
 Than words, could ever say.
 I love you nana.

Obituary

Henrietta raised two children, Denise and Shawn Reed. Henrietta married Eric Eaton.

Henrietta was a high-school graduate; she worked for MGH and Iron Mountain. Henrietta took an early retirement to devote her time to take care of her three grandchildren, Desiree, Jade, and Nathaniel Reed. Henrietta (Hanky) was a loyal and selfless person. She took in friends and family members, fed them and gave them a place to stay. She was known for her infectious smile and one of a kind laugh. Henrietta was fiercely protective of her family. Henrietta worked hard and made sacrifices for her family, she felt no need to get a license or a vehicle, and she loved to walk everywhere, if walking was a marathon, she was sure to win all of them.

She was a fixture at the Juneteenth cookout, where she made her trademark and much requested Macaroni salad, and potato salad. During this time Henrietta made significant changes in her life and began attending Grandparents group where she became a vocal member. She began attending the Church of Christ in Roxbury, she gave her life to Christ, and became a sister member of Victory Heights Church in Braintree.

Henrietta transitioned into an Ancestor and joins her mother: Rachel L Harris, Father: George E Reed and Sister: Gloria M Witherspoon. She is survived by her stepfather: Willoughby Harris, her brothers: George and John Reed and Sister: Mary Pinckney, her two children Denise and Shawn Reed, Her 7 Grandchildren; Shalaya, Crystal, Desiree, Jade, Nathaniel, Shawn Jr, and Asante. 4 Great-grandchildren numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Henrietta enjoyed life and lived in services to others.

Beloved Mother, Nana, Sister, Aunt and Friend we will forever mourn your passing.
